LOK SABHA

The following Bill was introduced in the Lok Sabha on the 28th February, 2001:—

BILL NO. 17 OF 2001

A Bill to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 2001-2002.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Fifty-second Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

CHAPTER I

PRELIMINARY

1. (1) This Act may be called the Finance Act, 2001.
- (2) Save as otherwise provided in this Act, sections 2 to 95 shall be deemed to have come into force on the 1st day of April, 2001.

Short title and commencement.

CHAPTER II

RATES OF INCOME-TAX

2. (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-sections (2) and (3), for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2001, income-tax shall be charged at the rates specified in Part I of the First Schedule and such tax as reduced by the rebate of income-tax calculated under Chapter VIII-A of the Income-tax Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the Income-tax Act) shall be increased,—

Income-tax.

- (a) in the cases to which Paragraphs A, B, C and D of that Part apply, by a surcharge for purposes of the Union; and

(b) in the cases to which Paragraph E of that Part applies, by a surcharge, calculated in each case in the manner provided therein.

(2) In the cases to which Paragraph A of Part I of the First Schedule applies, where the assessee has, in the previous year, any net agricultural income exceeding six hundred rupees, in addition to total income, and the total income exceeds fifty thousand rupees, then,—

(a) the net agricultural income shall be taken into account, in the manner provided in clause (b) [that is to say, as if the net agricultural income were comprised in the total income after the first fifty thousand rupees of the total income but without being liable to tax], only for the purpose of charging income-tax in respect of the total income; and

(b) the income-tax chargeable shall be calculated as follows:—

(i) the total income and the net agricultural income shall be aggregated and the amount of income-tax shall be determined in respect of the aggregate income at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if such aggregate income were the total income;

(ii) the net agricultural income shall be increased by a sum of fifty thousand rupees, and the amount of income-tax shall be determined in respect of the net agricultural income as so increased at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if the net agricultural income as so increased were the total income;

(iii) the amount of income-tax determined in accordance with sub-clause (i) shall be reduced by the amount of income-tax determined in accordance with sub-clause (ii) and the sum so arrived at shall be the income-tax in respect of the total income:

Provided that the amount of income-tax so arrived at, as reduced by the amount of rebate of income-tax calculated under Chapter VIII-A, shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union calculated in each case in the manner provided in that Paragraph and the sum so arrived at shall be the income-tax in respect of the total income.

(3) In cases to which the provisions of Chapter XII or Chapter XII-A or sub-section (1A) of section 161 or section 164 or section 164A or section 167B of the Income-tax Act apply, the tax chargeable shall be determined as provided in that Chapter or that section, and with reference to the rates imposed by sub-section (1) or the rates as specified in that Chapter or section, as the case may be:

Provided that the amount of income-tax computed in accordance with the provisions of sections 112 and 113 shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union or surcharge as provided in Paragraph A, B, C, D or E, as the case may be, of Part I of the First Schedule:

Provided further that in respect of any income chargeable to tax under sections 115A, 115AB, 115AC, 115ACA, 115AD, 115B, 115BB, 115BBA, 115E and 115JB of the Income-tax Act, the amount of income-tax computed under this sub-section shall be increased,—

(a) by a surcharge for purposes of the Union, calculated,—

(i) in the case of a co-operative society, a firm and a local authority, at the rate of twelve per cent. of such income-tax;

(ii) in the case of a person other than a company, a co-operative society, a firm and a local authority,—

(A) at the rate of twelve per cent. of such income-tax where the total income exceeds sixty thousand rupees but does not exceed one lakh fifty thousand rupees; or

(B) at the rate of seventeen per cent. of such income-tax where the total income exceeds one lakh fifty thousand rupees; and

(b) by a surcharge calculated at the rate of thirteen per cent. of such income-tax in the case of a domestic company.

(4) In cases in which tax has to be charged and paid under section 115-O or section 115R or section 115U of the Income-tax Act, the tax shall be charged and paid at the rate as specified in those sections and shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union, calculated at the rate of two per cent. of such tax:

Provided that no surcharge shall be payable by a foreign company.

(5) In cases in which tax has to be deducted under sections 193, 194, 194A, 194B, 194BB, 194D and 195 of the Income-tax Act, at the rates in force, the deduction shall be made at the rates specified in Part II of the First Schedule and shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union, calculated in each case in the manner provided therein.

(6) In cases in which tax has to be deducted under sections 194C, 194E, 194EE, 194F, 194G, 194H, 194-I, 194J, 194K, 194L, 196A, 196B, 196C and 196D of the Income-tax Act, the deduction shall be made at the rates specified in those sections and shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union, calculated at the rate of two per cent. of such tax:

Provided that no surcharge shall be payable by a foreign company.

(7) In cases in which tax has to be collected under the proviso to section 194B or under section 206C of the Income-tax Act, the collection shall be made at the rates specified in that section or at the rates specified in Part II of the First Schedule, as the case may be, and shall be increased, by a surcharge for purposes of the Union, calculated in each case in the manner provided therein.

(8) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (9), in cases in which income-tax has to be charged under sub-section (4) of section 172 or sub-section (2) of section 174 or section 175 or sub-section (2) of section 176, of the Income-tax Act or deducted under section 192 of the said Act from income chargeable under the head "Salaries" or in which the "advance tax" payable under Chapter XVII-C of the said Act has to be computed, at the rate or rates in force, such income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" shall be so charged, deducted or computed at the rate or rates specified in Part III of the First Schedule and such tax as reduced by the rebate of income-tax calculated under Chapter VIII-A of the said Act shall be increased for purposes of the Union, calculated in each case in the manner provided therein:

Provided that in cases to which the provisions of Chapter XII or Chapter XII-A or section 115JB or sub-section (1A) of section 161 or section 164 or section 164A or section 167B of the Income-tax Act apply, "advance tax" shall be computed with reference to the rates imposed by this sub-section or the rates as specified in that Chapter or section, as the case may be:

Provided further that the amount of income-tax computed in accordance with the provisions of sections 112 and 113 of the Income-tax Act shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union as provided in Paragraph A, B, C, D or E, as the case may be, of Part III of the First Schedule:

Provided also that in respect of any income chargeable to tax under sections 115A, 115AB, 115AC, 115ACA, 115AD, 115B, 115BB, 115BBA, 115E and 115JB of the Income-tax Act, "advance tax" computed under the first proviso shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union, calculated at the rate of two per cent. of such tax:

Provided that no surcharge shall be payable by a foreign company.

(9) In cases to which Paragraph A of Part III of the First Schedule applies, where the assessee has, in the previous year or, if by virtue of any provision of the Income-tax Act, income-tax is to be charged in respect of the income of a period other than the previous year, in such other period, any net agricultural income exceeding five thousand rupees, in addition to total income and the total income exceeds fifty thousand rupees, then, in charging income-tax under sub-section (2) of section 174 or section 175 or sub-section (2) of section 176 of the said Act or in computing the "advance tax" payable under Chapter XVII-C of the said Act, at the rate or rates in force,—

(a) the net agricultural income shall be taken into account, in the manner provided in clause (b) [that is to say, as if the net agricultural income were comprised in the total income after the first fifty thousand rupees of the total income but without being liable to tax], only for the purpose of charging or computing such income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" in respect of the total income; and

(b) such income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" shall be so charged or computed as follows:—

(i) the total income and the net agricultural income shall be aggregated and the amount of income-tax or "advance tax" shall be determined in respect of the aggregate income at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if such aggregate income were the total income;

(ii) the net agricultural income shall be increased by a sum of fifty thousand rupees, and the amount of income-tax or "advance tax" shall be determined in respect of the net agricultural income as so increased at the rates specified in the said Paragraph A, as if the net agricultural income were the total income;

(iii) the amount of income-tax or "advance tax" determined in accordance with sub-clause (i) shall be reduced by the amount of income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" determined in accordance with sub-clause (ii) and the sum so arrived at shall be the income-tax or, as the case may be, "advance tax" in respect of the total income:

Provided that the amount of income-tax or "advance tax" so arrived at, as reduced by the rebate of income-tax calculated under Chapter VIII-A of the said Act, shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union, calculated in each case in the manner provided therein.

(10) For the purposes of this section and the First Schedule,—

(a) "domestic company" means an Indian company or any other company which, in respect of its income liable to income-tax under the Income-tax Act for the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2001, has made the prescribed arrangements for the declaration and payment within India of the dividends (including dividends on preference shares) payable out of such income;

(b) "insurance commission" means any remuneration or reward, whether by way of commission or otherwise, for soliciting or procuring insurance business (including business relating to the continuance, renewal or revival of policies of insurance);

(c) "net agricultural income", in relation to a person, means the total amount of agricultural income, from whatever source derived, of that person computed in accordance with the rules contained in Part IV of the First Schedule;

(d) all other words and expressions used in this section and the First Schedule but not defined in this sub-section and defined in the Income-tax Act shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in that Act.

14. For section 23 of the Income-tax Act, the following section shall be substituted with effect from the 1st day of April, 2002, namely:—

"23. (1) For the purposes of section 22, the annual value of any property shall be deemed to be—

(a) the sum for which the property might reasonably be expected to let from year to year; or

(b) where the property or any part of the property is let and the actual rent received or receivable by the owner in respect thereof is in excess of the sum referred to in clause (a), the amount so received or receivable; or

(c) where the property or any part of the property is let and was vacant during the whole or any part of the previous year and owing to such vacancy the actual rent received or receivable by the owner in respect thereof is less than the sum referred to in clause (a), the amount so received or receivable:

Provided that the taxes levied by any local authority in respect of the property shall be deducted (irrespective of the previous year in which the liability to pay such taxes was incurred by the owner according to the method of accounting regularly employed by him) in determining the annual value of the property of that previous year in which such taxes are actually paid by him.

Explanation.—For the purposes of clause (b) or clause (c) of this sub-section, the amount of actual rent received or receivable by the owner shall not include, subject to such rules as may be made in this behalf, the amount of rent which the owner cannot realise.

(2) Where the property consists of a house or part of a house which—

(a) is in the occupation of the owner for the purposes of his own residence; or

(b) cannot actually be occupied by the owner by reason of the fact that owing to his employment, business or profession carried on at any other place, he has to reside at that other place in a building not belonging to him, the annual value of such house or part of the house shall be taken to be nil.

(3) The provisions of sub-section (2) shall not apply if—

(a) the house or part of the house is actually let during the whole or any part of the previous year; or

(b) any other benefit therefrom is derived by the owner.

Substitution of
section 23.

Annual Value
determined.

(4) Where the property referred to in sub-section (2) consists of more than one house—

(a) the provisions of that sub-section shall apply only in respect of one of such houses, which the assessee may, at his option, specify in this behalf;

(b) the annual value of the house or houses, other than the house in respect of which the assessee has exercised an option under clause (a), shall be determined under sub-section (1) as if such house or houses had been let.”.

- (f) such other method as may be prescribed by the Board.

(2) The most appropriate method referred to in sub-section (1) shall be applied, for determination of arm's length price, in the manner as may be prescribed:

Provided that where more than one price may be determined by the most appropriate method, the arm's length price shall be taken to be the arithmetical mean of such prices.

(3) Where during the course of any proceeding for the assessment of income, the Assessing Officer is, on the basis of material or information or document in his possession, of the opinion that—

- (a) the price charged or paid in an international transaction has not been determined in accordance with sub-sections (1) and (2); or
- (b) any information and document relating to an international transaction have not been kept and maintained by the assessee in accordance with the provisions contained in sub-section (1) of section 92D and the rules made in this behalf; or
- (c) the information or data used in computation of the arm's length price is not reliable or correct; or
- (d) the assessee has failed to furnish, within the specified time, any information or document which he was required to furnish by a notice issued under sub-section (3) of section 92D, the Assessing Officer may proceed to determine the arm's length price in relation to the said international transaction in accordance with sub-sections (1) and (2), on the basis of such material or information or document available with him:

Provided that an opportunity shall be given by the Assessing Officer by serving a notice calling upon the assessee to show cause, on a date and time to be specified in the notice, why the arm's length price should not be so determined on the basis of material or information or document in the possession of the Assessing Officer.

(4) Where an arm's length price is determined by the Assessing Officer under sub-section (3), the Assessing Officer may compute the total income of the assessee having regard to the arm's length price so determined:

Provided that no deduction under section 10A or section 10B or under Chapter VI-A shall be allowed in respect of the amount of income by which the total income of the assessee is enhanced after computation of income under this sub-section.

92D. (1) Every person who has entered into an international transaction shall keep and maintain such information and document in respect thereof, as may be prescribed.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions contained in sub-section (1), the Board may prescribe the period for which the information and document shall be kept and maintained under that sub-section.

(3) The Assessing Officer or the Commissioner (Appeals) may, in the course of any proceeding under this Act, require any person who has entered into an international transaction to furnish any information or document in respect thereof, as may be prescribed under sub-section (1), within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of a notice issued in this regard:

Provided that the Assessing Officer or the Commissioner (Appeals) may, on an application made by such person, extend the period of thirty days by a further period not exceeding thirty days.

92E. Every person who has entered into an international transaction during a previous year shall obtain a report from an accountant and furnish such report on or before the specified date in the prescribed form duly signed and verified in the prescribed manner by such accountant and setting forth such particulars as may be prescribed.

Customs

96 In the Customs Act, 1962 (hereinafter referred to as the Customs Act), in section 27A, for the words "not below ten per cent.", the words "not below five per cent." shall be substituted

Amendment of section 27A

97 In section 28 of the Customs Act, after sub-section (2), the following shall be inserted, namely —

Amendment of section 28

'(2A) Where any notice has been served on a person under sub-section (1), the proper officer,—

(i) in case any duty has not been levied or has been short-levied, or the interest has not been paid or has been part paid or the duty or interest has been erroneously refunded by reason of collusion or any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts, where it is possible to do so, shall determine the amount of such duty or the interest, within a period of one year; and

(ii) in any other case, where it is possible to do so, shall determine the amount of duty which has not been levied or has been short-levied or erroneously refunded or the interest payable which has not been paid, part paid or erroneously refunded, within a period of six months, from the date of service of the notice on the person under sub-section (1).

(2B) Where any duty has not been levied or has been short-levied or erroneously refunded, or any interest payable has not been paid, part paid or erroneously refunded, the person, chargeable with the duty or the interest, may pay the amount of duty or interest before service of notice on him under sub-section (1) in respect of the duty or the interest, as the case may be, and inform the proper officer of such payment in writing, who, on receipt of such information, shall not serve any notice under sub-section (1) in respect of the duty or the interest so paid:

Provided that the proper officer may determine the amount of short-payment of duty or interest, if any, which in his opinion has not been paid by such person and, then, the proper officer shall proceed to recover such amount in the manner specified in this section, and the period of "one year" or "six months" as the case may be, referred to in sub-section (1) shall be counted from the date of receipt of such information of payment.

Explanation 1.—Nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply in a case where the duty was not levied or was not paid or the interest was not paid or was partpaid or the duty or interest was erroneously refunded by reason of collusion or any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts by the importer or the exporter or the agent or employee of the importer or exporter.

Explanation 2—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the interest under section 28AB shall be payable on the amount paid by the person under this sub-section and also on the amount of short-payment of duty, if any, as may be determined by the proper officer, but for this sub-section.

(2C) The provisions of sub-section (2B) shall not apply to any case where the duty or the interest had become payable or ought to have been paid before the date on which the Finance Bill, 2001 receives the assent of the President.

98. Section 28AA of the Customs Act shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) thereof and after sub-section (1) as so renumbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to cases where the duty or the interest becomes payable or ought to be paid on and after the date on which the Finance Bill, 2001 receives the assent of the President."

99. In section 28AB of the Customs Act,—

(a) for sub-section (1), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) Where any duty has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded, the person who is liable to pay the duty as determined under sub-section (2), or has paid the duty under sub-section (2B), of section 28, shall, in addition to the duty, be liable to pay interest at such rate not below eighteen per cent and not exceeding thirty-six per cent, per annum, as is for the time being fixed by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, from the first day of the month succeeding the month in which the duty ought to have been paid under this Act, or from the date of such erroneous refund, as the case may be, but for the provisions contained in sub-section (2), or sub-section (2B), of section 28, till the date of payment of such duty:

Provided that in such cases where the duty becomes payable consequent to issue of an order, instruction or direction by the Board under section 151A,

Amendment of section 28AA

and such amount of duty payable is voluntarily paid in full, without reserving any right to appeal against such payment at any subsequent stage, within forty-five days from the date of issue of such order, instruction or direction, as the case may be, no interest shall be payable and in other cases the interest shall be payable on the whole of the amount, including the amount already paid.";

(b) for sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to cases where the duty or interest had become payable or ought to have been paid before the date on which the Finance Bill, 2001 receives the assent of the President.".

100. In section 61 of the Customs Act, in sub-section (2), in clause (ii), for the words "six months", wherever they occur, the words "thirty days" shall be substituted with effect from such date as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint.

103. In section 128 of the Customs Act, in sub-section (1),—

Amendment of section 128.

(a) for the words "within three months", the words "within sixty days" shall be substituted;

(b) for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided that the Commissioner (Appeals) may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of sixty days, allow it to be presented within a further period of thirty days.”.

Amendment of section 128A.

104. In section 128A of the Customs Act,—

(a) in sub-section (3), for the portion beginning with the words and brackets “The Commissioner (Appeals) may” and ending with the words “additional evidence, if necessary:”, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“The Commissioner (Appeals) shall, after making such further inquiry as may be necessary, pass such order, as he thinks just and proper, confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against:”;

(b) after sub-section (4), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

Amendment of section 129D.

105. In section 129D of the Customs Act, in sub-section (1), after the words “direct such Commissioner”, the words “or any other Commissioner” shall be inserted.

Amendment of section 129E.

106. In section 129E of the Customs Act, after the proviso, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that where an application is filed before the Commissioner (Appeals) for dispensing with the deposit of duty and interest demanded or penalty levied under the first proviso, the Commissioner (Appeals) shall, where it is possible to do so, decide such application within thirty days from the date of its filing.”.

Insertion of new section 159A.

107. After section 159 of the Customs Act, the following section shall be inserted and shall be deemed to have been inserted on and from the 1st day of February, 1963, namely:—

Effect of amendments, etc., of rules, regulations, notifications or orders

“159A. Where any rule, regulation, notification or order made or issued under this Act or any notification or order issued under such rule or regulation, is amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded, then, unless a different intention appears, such amendment, repeal, supersession or rescinding shall not—

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the amendment, repeal, suppression or rescinding takes effect; or

(b) affect the previous operation of any rule, regulation, notification or order so amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any rule, regulation, notification or order so amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded; or

(d) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed under or in violation of any rule, regulation, notification or order so amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded; or

(e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the rule, regulation, notification or order, as the case may be, had not been amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded.”.

Validation of certain action taken.

108. Any action taken or anything done or omitted to be done or purported to have been taken or done or omitted to be done under any rule, regulation, notification or order made or issued under the Customs Act, or any notification or order issued under such rule or regulation at any time during the period commencing on and from the 1st day of February, 1963 and ending with the day the Finance Bill, 2001 receives the assent of the President shall be deemed to be, and to always have been, for all purposes, as validly and effectively taken or done or omitted to be done as if the amendment made by section 107 of the Finance Act, 2001 had been in force at all material time and accordingly, notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority,—

(a) any action taken or anything done or, omitted to be done, during the said period in respect of any goods under any of such rule, regulation, notification or order, shall be deemed always to have been, as validly taken or done or omitted to be done as if the amendment made by section 107 of the Finance Act, 2001 had been in force at all material times;

(b) no suit or other proceedings shall be maintained or continued in any court, tribunal or other authority for any action taken or anything done or omitted to be done, in respect of any goods under any of such rule, regulation, notification or order, and no enforcement shall be made by any court, of any decree or order relating to such action taken or anything done or omitted to be done as if the amendment made by section 107 of the Finance Act, 2001 had been in force at all material times;

(c) recovery shall be made of all such amounts of duty or interest or penalty or fine or other charges which have not been collected or, as the case may be, which have been refunded, as if the amendment made by section 107 of the Finance Act, 2001 had been in force at all material times.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable if this section had not come into force.

109. (1) The notifications of the Government of India in the Ministry of Finance (Department of Revenue) No. G.S.R. 465(E), dated the 3rd May, 1990, G.S.R. 423(E), dated the 20th April, 1992, G.S.R. 946(E), dated the 28th December, 1992 and G.S.R. 417(E), dated the 14th May, 1993, issued under sub-section (1) of section 25 of the Customs Act by the Central Government shall stand amended and shall be deemed to have been amended in the manner as specified in the Eighth Schedule, on and from the date mentioned in column (4) of that Schedule against each of such notifications retrospectively and, accordingly, notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority, any action taken or anything done or purported to have been taken or done under the said notifications, shall be deemed to be, and always to have been, for all purposes, as validly or effectively taken or done as if the notifications as amended by this sub-section had been in force at all material times.

Amendment of notifications issued under section 25 of the Customs Act.

(2) For the purposes of sub-section (1), the Central Government shall have and shall be deemed to have the power to amend the notifications referred to in the said sub-section with retrospective effect as if the Central Government had the power to amend the said notifications under sub-section (1) of section 25 of the Customs Act, retrospectively at all material times.

51 of 1975.

Customs Tariff

110. In the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 (hereinafter referred to as the Customs Tariff Act), in section 3,—

Amendment of section 3.

(a) in sub-section (1) and before the Explanation, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided that in case of any alcoholic liquor for human consumption imported into India, the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify the rate of additional duty having regard to the excise duty for the time being leviable on a like alcoholic liquor produced or manufactured in different States, or, if a like alcoholic liquor is not produced or manufactured in any State, then, having regard to the excise duty which would be leviable for the time being in different States on the class or description of alcoholic liquor to which such imported alcoholic liquor belongs”;

(b) in sub-section (2), after clause (ii), the following proviso and Explanation shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided that in case of an article imported into India,—

(a) in relation to which it is required, under the provisions of the Standards of Weights and Measures Act, 1976 or the rules made thereunder or under any other law for the time being in force, to declare on the package thereof the retail sale price of such article; and

(b) where the like article produced or manufactured in India, or in case where such like article is not so produced or manufactured, then, the class or description of articles to which the imported article belongs, is the goods specified by notification in the Official Gazette under sub-section (I) of section 4A of the Central Excise Act, 1944, the value of the imported article shall be deemed to be the retail sale price declared on the imported article less such amount of abatement, if any, from such retail sale price as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, allow in respect of such like article under sub-section (2) of section 4A of the Central Excise Act, 1944.

1 of 1944.

Explanation.—Where on any imported article more than one retail sale price is declared, the maximum of such retail sale price shall be deemed to be the retail sale price for the purposes of this section.”.

111. In section 8B of the Customs Tariff Act,—

(a) in sub-section (1), after the proviso, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, exempt such quantity of any article as it may specify in the notification, when imported from any country or territory into India, from payment of the whole or part of the safeguard duty leivable thereon.”;

(b) after sub-section (2), the following shall be inserted, namely:—

‘(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) and sub-section (2), a notification issued under sub-section (1) or any safeguard duty imposed under sub-section (2), unless specifically made applicable in such notification or such imposition, as the case may be, shall not apply to articles imported by a hundred per cent. export-oriented undertaking or a unit in a free trade zone or in a special economic zone.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expressions “hundred per cent. export-oriented undertaking”, “free trade zone” and “special economic zone” shall have the meanings assigned to them in Explanation 2 to sub-section (1) of section 3 of Central Excise Act, 1944.’

1 of 1944.

Amendment of

112. In section 9A of the Customs Tariff Act, after sub-section (2), the following shall be inserted, namely:—

‘(2A) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1) and sub-section (2), a notification issued under sub-section (1) or any anti-dumping duty imposed under sub-section (2), unless specifically made applicable in such notification or such imposition, as the case may be, shall not apply to articles imported by a hundred per cent. export-oriented undertaking or a unit in a free trade zone or in a special economic zone.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this section, the expressions “hundred per cent. export-oriented undertaking”, “free trade zone” and “special economic zone” shall have the meanings assigned to them in Explanation 2 to sub-section (1) of section 3 of the Central Excise Act, 1944.’

section 5A.

117. In section 11A of the Central Excise Act, after sub-section (2), the following shall be inserted, namely:—

section 11A.

'(2A) Where any notice has been served on a person under sub-section (1), the Central Excise Officer,—

(a) in case any duty of excise has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded, by reason of fraud, collusion or any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts, or contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of the rules made thereunder with intent to evade payment of duty, where it is possible to do so, shall determine the amount of such duty, within a period of one year; and

(b) in any other case, where it is possible to do so, shall determine the amount of duty of excise which has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded, within a period of six months, from the date of service of the notice on the person under sub-section (1).

(2B) Where any duty of excise has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded, the person, chargeable with the duty, may pay the amount of duty before service of notice on him under sub-section (1) in respect of the duty, and inform the Central Excise Officer of such payment in writing, who, on receipt of such information shall not serve any notice under sub-section (1) in respect of the duty so paid:

Provided that the Central Excise Officer may determine the amount of short payment of duty, if any, which in his opinion has not been paid by such person and, then, the Central Excise Officer shall proceed to recover such amount in the manner specified in this section, and the period of "one year" referred to in sub-section (1) shall be counted from the date of receipt of such information of payment.

Explanation 1.—Nothing contained in this sub-section shall apply in a case where the duty was not levied or was not paid or was short-levied or was short-paid or was erroneously refunded by reason of fraud, collusion or any wilful mis-statement or suppression of facts, or contravention of any of the provisions of this Act or of the rules made thereunder with intent to evade payment of duty.

Explanation 2.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that the interest under section 11AB shall be payable on the amount paid by the person under this sub-section and also on the amount of short-payment of duty, if any, as may be determined by the Central Excise Officer, but for this sub-section.

(2C) The provisions of sub-section (2B) shall not apply to any case where the duty had become payable or ought to have been paid before the date on which the Finance Bill, 2001 receives the assent of the President.'.

section 11AA.

118. Section 11AA of the Central Excise Act shall be renumbered as sub-section (1) thereof and after sub-section (1) as so renumbered, the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

"(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to cases where the duty becomes payable on and after the date on which the Finance Bill, 2001 receives the assent of the President.”.

section 11AB.

119. In section 11AB of the Central Excise Act,—

(a) for sub-section (1), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) Where any duty of excise has not been levied or paid or has been short-levied or short-paid or erroneously refunded, the person who is liable to pay the duty as determined under sub-section (2), or has paid the duty under sub-section (2B), of section 11A, shall, in addition to the duty, be liable to pay interest at such rate not below eighteen per cent. and not exceeding thirty-six per cent. per annum, as is for the time being fixed by the Central Government, by notification in the Official Gazette, from the first date of the month succeeding the month in which the duty ought to have been paid under this Act, or from the date of such erroneous refund, as the case may be, but for the provisions contained in sub-section (2), or sub-section (2B), of section 11A till the date of payment of such duty:

Provided that in such cases where the duty becomes payable consequent to issue of an order, instruction or direction by the Board under section 37B, and such amount of duty payable is voluntarily paid in full, without reserving any right to appeal against such payment at any subsequent stage, within forty-five days from the date of issue of such order, instruction or direction, as the case may be, no interest shall be payable and in other cases the interest shall be payable on the whole of the amount, including the amount already paid.”;

(b) for sub-section (2), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

"(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not apply to cases where the duty had become payable or ought to have been paid before the date on which the Finance Bill, 2001 receives the assent of the President.”.

section 11BB.

120. In section 11BB of the Central Excise Act, for the words "not below ten per cent.", the words "not below five per cent." shall be substituted.

section 35A.

121. In section 35 of the Central Excise Act, in sub-section (1),—

(a) for the words "within three months", the words "within sixty days" shall be substituted;

(b) for the proviso, the following proviso shall be substituted, namely:—

“Provided that the Commissioner (Appeals) may, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from presenting the appeal within the aforesaid period of sixty days, allow it to be presented within a further period of thirty days.”.

122. In section 35A of the Central Excise Act,—

(a) in sub-section (3), for the portion beginning with the words and brackets “The Commissioner (Appeals) may” and ending with the words “additional evidence, if necessary:”, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“The Commissioner (Appeals) shall, after making such further inquiry as may be necessary, pass such order, as he thinks just and proper, confirming, modifying or annulling the decision or order appealed against:”;

(b) after sub-section (4), the following sub-section shall be inserted, namely:—

“(4A) The Commissioner (Appeals) shall, where it is possible to do so, hear and decide every appeal within a period of six months from the date on which it is filed.”.

123. In section 35E of the Central Excise Act, in sub section (1), after the words “direct such Commissioner”, the words “or any other Commissioner” shall be inserted.

124. In section 35F of the Central Excise Act, after the proviso, the following proviso shall be inserted, namely:—

“Provided further that where an application is filed before the Commissioner (Appeals) for dispensing with the deposit of duty demanded or penalty levied under the first proviso, the Commissioner (Appeals) shall, where it is possible to do so, decide such application within thirty days from the date of its filing.”.

125. After section 38 of the Central Excise Act, the following section shall be inserted and shall be deemed to have been inserted on and from the 28th day of February, 1944, namely:—

“38A. Where any rule, notification or order made or issued under this Act or any notification or order issued under such rule, is amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded, then, unless a different intention appears, such amendment, repeal, supersession or rescinding shall not—

(a) revive anything not in force or existing at the time at which the amendment, repeal, supersession or rescinding takes effect; or

(b) affect the previous operation of any rule, notification or order so amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

(c) affect any right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired, accrued or incurred under any rule, notification or order so amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded; or

(d) affect any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed under or in violation of any rule, notification or order so amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded; or

(e) affect any investigation, legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid,

and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if the rule, notification or order, as the case may be, had not been amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded.”.

Amendment of section 35A.

Amendment of section 35E.

Amendment of section 35F.

Insertion of new section 38A.

Effect of amendments, etc., of rules, notifications or orders.

Validation of certain action taken.

126. Any action taken or anything done or omitted to be done or purporting to have been taken or done or omitted to be done under any rule, notification, or order made or issued under the Central Excise Act, or any notification or order issued under such rule at any time during the period commencing on and from the 28th day of February, 1944 and ending with the day the Finance Bill, 2001 receives the assent of the President shall be deemed to be and to have always been, for all purposes, as validly and effectively taken or done or omitted to be done as if the amendment made by section 125 of the Finance Act, 2001 had been in force at all material times and, accordingly, notwithstanding anything contained in any judgment, decree or order of any court, tribunal or other authority,—

(a) any action taken or anything done or omitted to be done, during the said period in respect of any excisable goods under any of such rule, notification or order, shall be deemed always to have been, as validly taken or done or omitted to be done as if the amendment made by section 125 of the Finance Act, 2001 had been in force at all material times;

(b) no suit or other proceedings shall be maintained or continued in any court, tribunal or other authority for any action taken or anything done or omitted to be done, in respect of any excisable goods under any of such rule, notification or order, and no enforcement shall be made by any court, of any decree or order relating to such action taken or anything done or omitted to be done as if the amendment made by section 125 of the Finance Act, 2001 had been in force at all material times;

(c) recovery shall be made of all such amounts of duty or interest or penalty or fine or credit of duty in respect of inputs or capital goods or other charges which have not been collected or, as the case may be, which have been refunded, as if the amendment made by section 125 of the Finance Act, 2001 had been in force at all material times.

Explanation.—For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that no act or omission on the part of any person shall be punishable as an offence which would not have been so punishable if this section had not come into force.

PART IV

RULES FOR COMPUTATION OF NET AGRICULTURAL INCOME

Rule 1.—Agricultural Income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (a) of clause (IA) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head "Income from other sources" and the provisions of sections 57 to 59 of that Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly:

Provided that sub-section (2) of section 58 shall apply subject to the modification that the reference to section 40A therein shall be construed as not including a reference to sub-sections (3) and (4) of section 40A.

Rule 2.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (b) or sub-clause (c) of clause (IA) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act [other than income derived from any building required as a dwelling house by the receiver of the rent or revenue of the cultivator or the receiver of rent-in-kind referred to in the said sub-clause (c)] shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head "Profits and gains of business or profession" and the provisions of sections 30, 31, 32, 36, 37, 38, 40, 40A [other than sub-sections (3) and (4) thereof], 41, 43, 43A, 43B and 43C of the Income-tax Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.

Rule 3.—Agricultural income of the nature referred to in sub-clause (c) of clause (IA) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act, being income derived from any building required as a dwelling-house by the receiver of the rent or revenue or the cultivator or the receiver of rent-in-kind referred to in the said sub-clause (c) shall be computed as if it were income chargeable to income-tax under that Act under the head "Income from house property" and the provisions of sections 23 to 27 of that Act shall, so far as may be, apply accordingly.

Rule 4.—Notwithstanding anything contained in any other provisions of these rules, in a case—

(a) where the assessee derives income from sale of tea grown and manufactured by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 8 of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty per cent. of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee;

(b) where the assessee derives income from sale of centrifuged latex or cenex manufactured by him from rubber grown by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 7A of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty-five per cent. of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee;

(c) where the assessee derives income from sale of coffee grown and manufactured by him in India, such income shall be computed in accordance with rule 7B of the Income-tax Rules, 1962, and sixty per cent. of such income shall be regarded as the agricultural income of the assessee.

Rule 5.—Where the assessee is a member of an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a Hindu undivided family, a company or a firm) which in the previous year has either no income chargeable to tax under the Income-tax Act or has total income not exceeding the maximum amount not chargeable to tax in the case of an association of persons or a body of individuals (other than a Hindu undivided family, a company or a firm) but has any agricultural income, then, the agricultural income or loss of the association or body shall be computed in accordance with these rules and the share of the assessee in the agricultural income or loss so computed shall be regarded as the agricultural income or loss of the assessee.

Rule 6.—Where the result of the computation for the previous year in respect of any source of agricultural income is a loss, such loss, shall be set off against the income of the assessee, if any, for that previous year from any other source of agricultural income:

Provided that where the assessee is a member of an association of persons or a body of individuals and the share of the assessee in the agricultural income of the association or body, as the case may be, is a loss, such loss shall not be set off against any income of the assessee from any other source of agricultural income.

Rule 7.—Any sum payable by the assessee on account of any tax levied by the State Government on the agricultural income shall be deducted in computing the agricultural income.

Rule 8.—(1) Where the assessee has, in the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2001, any agricultural income and the net result of the computation of the agricultural income of the assessee for any one or more of the previous years relevant to the assessment years commencing on the 1st day of April, 1993 or the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000 is a loss, then, for the purposes of sub-section (2) of section 2 of this Act,—

(i) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1993, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000,

(ii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1994, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000,

(iii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1995, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000,

(iv) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1996, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000,

(v) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1997, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000,

(vi) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000,

(vii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1999, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2000,

(viii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2000, shall be set off against the agricultural income of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2001.

(2) Where the assessee has, in the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2002 or, if by virtue of any provision of the Income-tax Act, income-tax is to be charged in respect of the income of a period other than that previous year, in such other period, any agricultural income and the net result of the computation of the agricultural income of the assessee for any one or more of the previous years relevant to the assessment years commencing on the 1st day of April, 1994 or the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000 or the 1st day of April, 2001 is a loss, then, for the purposes of sub-section (9) of section 2 of this Act,—

(i) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1994, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1995 or the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000 or the 1st day of April, 2001,

(ii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1995, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1996 or the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000 or the 1st day of April, 2001,

(iii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1996, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1997 or the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000 or the 1st day of April, 2001,

(iv) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1997, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998 or the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000 or the 1st day of April, 2001,

(v) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1998, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1999 or the 1st day of April, 2000 or the 1st day of April, 2001,

(vi) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 1999, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2000 or the 1st day of April, 2001,

(vii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2000, to the extent, if any, such loss has not been set off against the agricultural income for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2001,

(viii) the loss so computed for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2001, shall be set off against the agricultural income of the assessee for the previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2002.

(3) Where any person deriving any agricultural income from any source has been succeeded in such capacity by another person, otherwise than by inheritance, nothing in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall entitle any person, other than the person incurring the loss, to have it set off under sub-rule (1) or, as the case may be, sub-rule (2).

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, no loss which has not been determined by the Assessing Officer under the provisions of these rules or the rules contained in Part IV of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1993 (38 of 1993), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1994 (32 of 1994), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1995 (22 of 1995), or of the First Schedule to the Finance (No.2) Act, 1996 (33 of 1996), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1997 (26 of 1997), or of the First Schedule to the Finance (No.2) Act, 1998 (21 of 1998), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 1999 (27 of 1999), or of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2000 (10 of 2000), shall be set off under sub-rule (1) or, as the case may be, sub-rule (2).

Rule 9.—Where the net result of the computation made in accordance with these rules is a loss, the loss so computed shall be ignored and the net agricultural income shall be deemed to be nil.

Rule 10.—The provisions of the Income-tax Act relating to procedure for assessment (including the provisions of section 288A relating to rounding off of income) shall, with the necessary modifications, apply in relation to the computation of the net agricultural income of the assessee as they apply in relation to the assessment of the total income.

Rule 11.—For the purposes of computing the net agricultural income of the assessee, the Assessing Officer shall have the same powers as he has under the Income-tax Act for the purposes of assessment of the total income.

(14) in Chapter 22, in heading No. 22.08, in column (3), for the word “UNDENATURATED”, the word “UNDENATURED” shall be substituted;

(15) in Chapter 23, after NOTE, the following SUBHEADING NOTE shall be inserted, namely:—

‘SUBHEADING NOTE

1. For the purposes of sub-heading 2306.41, the expression “low erucic acid rape or colza seeds” means seeds as defined in SUBHEADING NOTE 1 to Chapter 12.’;

(16) in Chapter 25,—

(i) in NOTE 4, for the words “broken pottery”, the words “broken pieces of pottery, brick or concrete” shall be substituted;

(ii) in heading No. 25.18,-

(a) for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“DOLOMITE, WHETHER OR NOT CALCINED OR SINTERED, INCLUDING DOLOMITE ROUGHLY TRIMMED OR MERELY CUT, BY SAWING OR OTHERWISE, INTO BLOCKS OR SLABS OF A RECTANGULAR (INCLUDING SQUARE) SHAPE; DOLOMITE RAMMING MIX”;

(b) in sub-heading No. 2518.10, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:— “— Dolomite, not calcined or sintered”;

(c) in sub-heading No. 2518.20, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:— “— Calcined or sintered dolomite”;

(d) in sub-heading No. 2518.30, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:— “— Dolomite ramming mix”;

(iii) heading No. 25.27 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(iv) in heading No. 25.30, sub-heading No. 2530.40 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(17) in Chapter 26,—

(i) in NOTE 1, clauses (c) to (f) shall be renumbered as clauses (d) to (g) respectively and before clause (d) as so renumbered, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(c) Sludges from the storage tanks of petroleum oils, consisting mainly of such oils (heading 27.10);”;

(ii) for NOTE 3, the following NOTE shall be substituted, namely:—

“3. Heading 26.20 applies only to:

(a) Ash and residues of a kind used in industry either for the extraction of metals or as a basis for the manufacture of chemical compounds of metals, excluding ash and residues from the incineration of municipal waste (heading 26.21); and

(b) Ash and residues containing arsenic, whether or not containing metals, of a kind used either for the extraction of arsenic or metals or for the manufacture of their chemical compounds.”;

(iii) after NOTE 3, the following SUBHEADING NOTES shall be inserted, namely:—

‘SUBHEADING NOTES

1. For the purposes of sub-heading 2620.21, “leaded gasoline sludges and leaded anti-knock compound sludges” mean sludges obtained from storage tanks of leaded gasoline and leaded anti-knock compounds (for example, tetraethyl lead), and consisting essentially of lead, lead compounds and iron oxide.

2. Ash and residues containing arsenic, mercury, thallium or their mixtures, of a kind used for the extraction of arsenic or those metals or for the manufacture of their chemical compounds, are to be classified in sub-heading 2620.60.”;

(iv) in heading No. 26.20,—

(a) for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“ASH AND RESIDUES (OTHER THAN FROM THE MANUFACTURE OF IRON OR STEEL), CONTAINING ARSENIC, METALS OR THEIR COMPOUNDS”;

(b) sub-heading No. 2620.50 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(18) in Chapter 27,—

(i) after NOTE 2, the following NOTE shall be inserted, namely:—

‘3. For the purposes of heading 27.10, “waste oils” means waste containing mainly petroleum oils and oils obtained from bituminous minerals (as described in Note 2 to this Chapter), whether or not mixed with water. These include:

(a) Such oils no longer fit for use as primary products (for example, used lubricating oils, used hydraulic oils and used transformer oils);

(b) Sludge oils from the storage tanks of petroleum oils, mainly containing such oils and a high concentration of additives (for example, chemicals) used in the manufacture of the primary products; and

(c) Such oils in the form of emulsions in water or mixtures with water, such as those resulting from oil spills, storage tank washings, or from the use of cutting oils for machining operations.”;

(ii) for SUBHEADING NOTE 3, the following SUBHEADING NOTES shall be substituted, namely:—

‘3. For the purposes of sub-headings 2707.10, 2707.20, 2707.30, 2707.40 and 2707.60, the terms “benzol (benzene)”, “toluol (toluene)”, “xylol (xylanes)”, “naphthalene” and “phenols” apply to products which contain more than 50% by weight of benzene, toluene, xylanes, naphthalene or phenols, respectively.

4. For the purposes of sub-heading 2710.11, "light oils and preparations" are those of which 90% or more by volume (including losses) distil at 210° C (ASTM D 86 method).';

(iv) in heading No. 27.07,—

(a) in sub-heading No. 2707.10, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

" - Benzol (benzene)";

(b) in sub-heading No. 2707.20, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

" - Toluol (toluene)";

(c) in sub-heading No. 2707.30, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

" - Xylol (xylenes)";

(19) in Chapter 28,—

(i) in NOTE 3, for clause (d), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(d) Inorganic products of a kind used as luminophores, of heading 32.06; glass frit and other glass in the form of powder, granules or flakes, of heading 32.07;";

(ii) in heading No. 28.09, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

"DIPHOSPHOROUS PENTAOXIDE; PHOSPHORIC ACID; POLYPHOSPHORIC ACIDS, WHETHER OR NOT CHEMICALLY DEFINED";

(iii) in heading No. 28.27, sub-heading No. 2827.38 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(iv) in heading No. 28.30, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

"SULPHIDES; POLYSULPHIDES, WHETHER OR NOT CHEMICALLY DEFINED";

(v) in heading No. 28.34, sub-heading No. 2834.22 and the entries relating thereto, shall be omitted;

(vi) in heading No. 28.35, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

"PHOSPHINATES (HYPOPHOSPHITES), PHOSPHONATES (PHOSPHITES) AND PHOSPHATES; POLYPHOSPHATES, WHETHER OR NOT CHEMICALLY DEFINED";

(vii) in heading No. 28.36, in sub-heading No. 2836.70, for the entry in column (3), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

" - Lead carbonates";

(viii) in heading No. 28.41, sub-heading No. 2841.40 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(ix) in heading No. 28.42,—

(a) for the entry in column (3), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"OTHER SALTS OF INORGANIC ACIDS OR PEROXOACIDS (INCLUDING ALUMINOSILICATES WHETHER OR NOT CHEMICALLY DEFINED), OTHER THAN AZIDES";

(b) in sub-heading No. 2842.10, for the entry in column (3), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"-Double or complex silicates, including aluminosilicates whether or not chemically defined";

(20) in Chapter 29,—

(i) in NOTE 1, for clause (c), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

"(c) The products of headings 29.36 to 29.39 or the sugar ethers, sugar acetals and sugar esters, and their salts, of heading 29.40, or the products of heading 29.41, whether or not chemically defined";

(ii) after NOTE 7, the following NOTE shall be inserted, namely:—

'8. For the purposes of heading 29.37:

(a) the term "hormones" includes hormone-releasing or hormone-stimulating factors, hormone inhibitors and hormone antagonists (anti-hormones);

(b) the expression "used primarily as hormones" applies not only to hormone derivatives and structural analogues used primarily for their hormonal effect, but also to those derivatives and structural analogues used primarily as intermediates in the synthesis of products of this heading.';

(iii) in heading No. 29.03, sub-heading No. 2903.16 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(iv) in heading No. 29.07,—

(a) after sub-heading No. 2907.19 and the entries relating thereto, in column (3), for the word "-Polyphenols:", the following words shall be substituted, namely—

" - Polyphenols; phenol-alcohols:";

(b) sub-heading No. 2907.30 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(v) in heading No. 29.14, in sub-heading No. 2914.31, in column (3), for the brackets, figures and words "(1-phenylpropan -2- one)", the brackets, words and figure "(phenylpropan-2-one)" shall be substituted;

(vi) in heading No. 29.15, in sub-heading No. 2915.60, for the entry in column (3), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

" - Butanoic acids, pentanoic acids, their salts and esters ";

(vii) in heading No. 29.18, sub-heading No. 2918.17 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(viii) in Sub-Chapter VIII, for the title, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"VIII.—ESTERS OF INORGANIC ACIDS OF NON-METALS AND THEIR SALTS, AND THEIR HALOGENATED, SULPHONATED, NITRATED OR NITROSATED DERIVATIVES";

(ix) in heading No. 29.20, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

"ESTERS OF OTHER INORGANIC ACIDS OF NON-METALS (EXCLUDING ESTERS OF HYDROGEN HALIDES) AND THEIR SALTS; THEIR HALOGENATED, SULPHONATED, NITRATED OR NITROSATED DERIVATIVES";

(x) in heading No. 29.22,—

(a) in the portion occurring immediately after heading No. 29.22, in column (3), for the words "Amino-alcohols, their ethers and esters, other than those containing more than one kind of oxygen function; salts thereof:", the following words shall be substituted, namely:—

"-Amino-alcohols, other than those containing more than one kind of oxygen function, their ethers and esters; salts thereof:";

(b) after sub-heading No. 2922.19 and the entries relating thereto, in column (3), for the words “Amino-naphthols and other amino phenols, their ethers and esters, other than those containing more than one kind of oxygen function; salts thereof:”, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

“Amino-naphthols and other amino-phenols, other than those containing more than one kind of oxygen function, their ethers and esters; salts thereof:”;

(xi) in heading No. 29.23, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“QUATERNARY AMMONIUM SALTS AND HYDROXIDES; LECITHINS AND OTHER PHOSPHOAMINOLIPIDS, WHETHER OR NOT CHEMICALLY DEFINED”;

(xii) in heading No. 29.34,—

(a) for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“NUCLEIC ACIDS AND THEIR SALTS, WHETHER OR NOT CHEMICALLY DEFINED; OTHER HETEROCYCLIC COMPOUNDS”;

(b) in sub-heading No. 2934.20, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Compounds containing in the structure a benzothiazole ring-system (whether or not hydrogenated), not further fused”;

(c) in sub-heading No. 2934.30, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Compounds containing in the structure a phenothiazine ring-system (whether or not hydrogenated), not further fused”;

(xiii) in heading No. 29.39, sub-heading No. 2939.70 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(xiv) in heading No. 29.40, in sub-heading No. 2940.00, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“SUGARS, CHEMICALLY PURE, OTHER THAN SUCROSE, LACTOSE, MALTOSE, GLUCOSE AND FRUCTOSE; SUGAR ETHERS, SUGAR ACETALS AND SUGAR ESTERS, AND THEIR SALTS, OTHER THAN PRODUCTS OF HEADING 29.37, 29.38 OR 29.39”;

(21) in Chapter 30,—

(i) in NOTE 1, for clause (a), the following clause shall be substituted, namely:—

“(a) Foods or beverages (such as dietetic, diabetic or fortified foods, food supplements, tonic beverages and mineral waters), other than nutritional preparations for intravenous administration (Section IV);”;

(ii) in NOTE 4,—

(a) in clause (g), the word “and” occurring at the end shall be omitted;

(b) for clause (h), the following clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

“(h) Chemical contraceptive preparations based on hormones, on other products of heading 29.37 or on spermicides;”;

(ij) Gel preparations designed to be used in human or veterinary medicine as a lubricant for parts of the body for surgical operations or physical examinations or as a coupling agent between the body and medical instruments; and

(k) Waste pharmaceuticals, that is, pharmaceutical products which are unfit for their original intended purpose due to, for example, expiry of shelf life.”;

(iii) in heading No. 30.04,—

(a) for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“MEDICAMENTS (EXCLUDING GOODS OF HEADING 30.02, 30.05 OR

30.06) CONSISTING OF MIXED OR UNMIXED PRODUCTS FOR THERAPEUTIC OR PROPHYLACTIC USES, PUT UP IN MEASURED DOSES (INCLUDING THOSE IN THE FORM OF TRANSDERMAL ADMINISTRATION SYSTEMS) OR IN FORMS OR PACKINGS FOR RETAIL SALE";

(b) in sub-heading No. 3004.32, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“--Containing corticosteroid hormones, their derivatives and structural analogues”;

(iv) in heading No. 30.06, in sub-heading No. 3006.60, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“ -Chemical contraceptive preparations based on hormones, on other products of heading 29.37 or on spermicides”;

(22) in Chapter 32, in heading No. 32.06, in sub-heading No. 3206.11, in column (3), for the words “on the dry weight”, the words “on the dry matter” shall be substituted;

(23) in Chapter 34,—

(i) in heading No. 34.01, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

(ii) in heading No. 34.04, in sub-heading No. 3404.20, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Of poly(oxyethylene) (polyethylene glycol)”;

(24) in Chapter 35, in heading No. 35.06, in sub-heading No. 3506.91, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“--Adhesives based on polymers of headings 39.01 to 39.13 or on rubber”;

(25) in Chapter 38,—

(i) in NOTE 1,—

(a) in clause (a), for sub-clause (4), the following sub-clauses shall be substituted, namely:—

(4) Certified reference materials specified in Note 2 below;

(5) Products specified in Note 3 (a) or 3 (c) below;”;

(b) in clause (b), for the brackets, words and figures “(generally, heading No. 21.06).”, the brackets, words and figures “(generally, heading 21.06);” shall be substituted;

(c) clauses (c) and (d) shall be renumbered as (d) and (e) and before clause (d) as so renumbered, the following clause shall be inserted, namely:—

“(c) Ash and residues (including sludges, other than sewage sludge), containing metals, arsenic or their mixtures and meeting the requirements of Note 3 (a) or 3 (b) to Chapter 26 (heading 26.20);”;

(d) in clause (d) so renumbered, for the brackets, words and figures “(heading No. 30.03 or 30.04).”, the brackets, words and figures “(heading 30.03 or 30.04); or” shall be substituted;

(ii) NOTE 2 shall be renumbered as NOTE 3 and before NOTE 3 as so renumbered, the following NOTE shall be inserted, namely:—

'2. (A) For the purpose of heading 38.22, the expression "certified reference materials" means reference materials which are accompanied by a certificate which indicates the values of the certified properties, the methods used to determine these values and the degree of certainty associated with each value and which are suitable for analytical, calibrating or referencing purposes.

(B) With the exception of the products of Chapter 28 or 29, for the classification of certified reference materials, heading 38.22 shall take precedence over any other heading in the Nomenclature.';

(iii) after NOTE 3 as so renumbered, the following NOTES AND SUBHEADING NOTE shall be inserted, namely:—

'4. Throughout the Nomenclature, "municipal waste" means waste of a kind collected from households, hotels, restaurants, hospitals, shops, offices, etc., road and pavement sweepings, as well as construction and demolition waste. Municipal waste generally contains a large variety of materials such as plastics, rubber, wood, paper, textiles, glass, metals, food materials, broken furniture and other damaged or discarded articles. The term "municipal waste", however, does not cover:

(a) Individual materials or articles segregated from the waste, such as wastes of plastics, rubber, wood, paper, textiles, glass or metals and spent batteries which fall in their appropriate headings of the Nomenclature;

(b) Industrial waste;

(c) Waste pharmaceuticals, as defined in Note 4 (k) to Chapter 30; or

(d) Clinical waste, as defined in Note 6 (a) below.

5. For the purposes of heading 38.25, "sewage sludge" means sludge arising from urban effluent treatment plant and includes pre-treatment waste, scourings and unstabilised sludge. Stabilised sludge when suitable for use as fertiliser is excluded (Chapter 31).

6. For the purposes of heading 38.25, the expression "other wastes" applies to:

(a) Clinical waste, that is, contaminated waste arising from medical research, diagnosis, treatment or other medical, surgical, dental or veterinary procedures, which often contain pathogens and pharmaceutical substances and require special disposal procedures (for example, soiled dressings, used gloves and used syringes);

(b) Waste organic solvents;

(c) Wastes of metal pickling liquors, hydraulic fluids, brake fluids and anti-freezing fluids; and

(d) Other wastes from chemical or allied industries.

The expression "other wastes" does not, however, cover wastes which contain mainly petroleum oils or oils obtained from bituminous minerals (heading 27.10).

SUBHEADING NOTE

1. For the purposes of sub-headings 3825.41 and 3825.49, "waste organic solvents" are wastes containing mainly organic solvents, not fit for further use as presented as primary products, whether or not intended for recovery of the solvents.';

(iv) in heading No. 38.22, in sub-heading No. 3822.00, for the entry in column (3), the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"DIAGNOSTIC OR LABORATORY REAGENTS ON A BACKING, PREPARED DIAGNOSTIC OR LABORATORY REAGENTS WHETHER OR NOT ON A BACKING, OTHER THAN THOSE OF HEADING 30.02 OR 30.06; CERTIFIED REFERENCE MATERIALS";

(v) in heading No. 38.24, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“PREPARED BINDERS FOR FOUNDRY MOULDS OR CORES; CHEMICAL PRODUCTS AND PREPARATIONS OF THE CHEMICAL OR ALLIED INDUSTRIES (INCLUDING THOSE CONSISTING OF MIXTURES OF NATURAL PRODUCTS), NOT ELSEWHERE SPECIFIED OR INCLUDED”;

(26) in Chapter 39,—

(i) for the words “SUBHEADING NOTE”, the words “SUBHEADING NOTES” shall be substituted;

(ii) the existing SUBHEADING NOTE shall be numbered as SUBHEADING NOTE 1 thereof and after SUBHEADING NOTE 1 as so numbered, the following SUBHEADING NOTE shall be inserted, namely:—

‘2. For the purposes of sub-heading 3920.43, the term “plasticisers” includes secondary plasticisers.’;

(iii) in heading No. 39.04,—

(a) in sub-heading No. 3904.10, in column (3), for the words “Polyvinyl chloride”, the following words and brackets shall be substituted, namely:—

“Poly (vinyl chloride)”;

(b) after sub-heading No. 3904.10 and the entries relating thereto, in column (3), for the words “-Other polyvinyl chloride:”, the following words and brackets shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Other poly (vinyl chloride):”;

(iv) in heading No. 39.05,—

(a) in the portion occurring immediately after heading No. 39.05, in column (3), for the words “-Polyvinyl acetate:”, the following words and brackets shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Poly (vinyl acetate):”;

(b) in sub-heading No. 3905.30, in column (3), for the words “Polyvinyl alcohol”, the following words and brackets shall be substituted, namely:—

“Poly(vinyl alcohol)”;

(v) in heading No. 39.06, in sub-heading No. 3906.10, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Poly (methyl methacrylate)”;

(vi) in heading No. 39.07, in sub-heading No. 3907.60, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Poly (ethylene terephthalate)”;

(vii) in heading No. 39.20,—

(a) in sub-heading No. 3920.51, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“--Of poly(methyl methacrylate)”;

(b) in sub-heading No. 3920.62, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“--Of poly (ethylene terephthalate)”;

(c) in sub-heading No. 3920.91, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“--Of poly(vinyl butyral)”;

(viii) in heading No. 39.22,—

(a) for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“BATHS, SHOWER-BATHS, SINKS, WASH-BASINS, BIDETS, LAVATORY PANS, SEATS AND COVERS, FLUSHING CISTERNS AND SIMILAR SANITARY WARE, OF PLASTICS”;

(b) in sub-heading No. 3922.10, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Baths, shower-baths, sinks and wash-basins”;

(ix) in heading No. 39.26, in sub-heading No. 3926.20, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“ -Articles of apparel and clothing accessories (including gloves, mittens and mitts)”;

(27) in Chapter 40,—

(i) in NOTE 2, in clause (f), for the word “gloves”, the words “gloves, mittens and mitts” shall be substituted;

(ii) in heading No. 40.15,—

(a) in column (3), for the brackets and words “(INCLUDING GLOVES)”, the brackets and words “(INCLUDING GLOVES, MITTENS AND MITTS)” shall be substituted;

(b) in the portion occurring immediately after heading No. 40.15, in column (3), for the word “-Gloves:”, the following words shall be substituted, namely:—

“-Gloves, mittens and mitts:”;

(28) in Chapter 41,—

(i) NOTE 2 shall be renumbered as NOTE 3 and before NOTE 3 as so renumbered, the following NOTE shall be inserted, namely:—

‘2. (A) Headings 41.04 to 41.06 do not cover hides and skins which have undergone a tanning (including pre-tanning) process which is reversible (headings 41.01 to 41.03, as the case may be).

(B) For the purposes of headings 41.04 to 41.06, the term “crust” includes hides and skins that have been retanned, coloured or fat-liquored (stuffed) prior to drying.’;

(ii) in NOTE 3 as so renumbered, for the words and figures “ heading No. 41.11”, the word and figures “ heading 41.15” shall be substituted;

(29) in Chapter 42,—

(i) in NOTE 1, in clause (b), for the brackets and words “(except gloves)”, the brackets and words “(except gloves, mittens and mitts)” shall be substituted;

(ii) in NOTE 3, for the words and brackets “gloves (including sports gloves)”, the words and brackets “gloves, mittens and mitts (including those for sport or for protection)” shall be substituted;

(iii) in heading No. 42.02, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

“TRUNKS, SUIT-CASES, VANITY-CASES, EXECUTIVE-CASES, BRIEF-CASES, SCHOOL SATCHELS, SPECTACLE CASES, BINOCULAR CASES, CAMERA CASES, MUSICAL INSTRUMENT CASES, GUN CASES, HOLSTERS AND SIMILAR CONTAINERS; TRAVELLING-BAGS, INSULATED FOOD OR BEVERAGES BAGS, TOILET BAGS, RUCKSACKS, HANDBAGS, SHOPPING BAGS, WALLETS, PURSES, MAP-CASES, CIGARETTE-CASES, TOBACCO-POUCHES, TOOL BAGS, SPORTS BAGS, BOTTLE-CASES, JEWELLERY BOXES, POWDER-BOXES, CUTLERY CASES AND SIMILAR CONTAINERS, OF LEATHER OR OF COMPOSITION LEATHER, OF SHEETING OF PLASTICS, OF TEXTILE MATERIALS, OF VULCANISED FIBRE OR OF PAPERBOARD, OR WHOLLY OR MAINLY COVERED WITH SUCH MATERIALS OR WITH PAPER";

(30) in Chapter 43,—

(i) in NOTE 2, in clause (c), for the word "Gloves", the words "Gloves, mittens and mitts," shall be substituted;

(ii) in heading No. 43.01, sub-heading Nos. 4301.20, 4301.40 and 4301.50 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(iii) in heading No. 43.02, sub-heading No. 4302.12 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(31) in Chapter 44,—

(i) for SUBHEADING NOTE, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

SUBHEADING NOTE

'1. For the purposes of sub-headings 4403.41 to 4403.49, 4407.24 to 4407.29, 4408.31 to 4408.39 and 4412.13 to 4412.99, the expression "tropical wood" means one of the following types of wood:

Abura, Acajou d'Afrique, Afromosia, Ako, Alan, Andiroba, Aningre, Avodire, Azobe, Balau, Balsa, Bosse clair, Bosse foncé, Cativo, Cedro, Dabemba, Dark Red Meranti, Dibotou, Doussie, Framire, Freijo, Fromager, Fuma, Geronggang, Ilomba, Imbuia, Ipe, Iroko, Jaboty, Jelutong, Jequitiba, Jongkong, Kapur, Kempas, Keruing, Kosipo, Kotibe, Koto, Light Red Meranti, Limba, Louro, Macaranduba, Mahogany, Makore, Mandioqueira, Mansonia, Mengkulang, Meranti Bakau, Merawan, Merbau, Merbau, Mersawa, Moabi, Niangon, Nyatoh, Obeche, Okoume, Onzabili, Orey, Ovengkol, Ozigo, Padauk, Paldao, Palissandre de Guatemala, Palissandre de Para, Palissandre de Rio, Palissandre de Rose, Pau Amarelo, Pau Marfim, Pulai, Punah, Quaruba, Ramin, Sapelli, Saqui-Saqui, Sepetir, Sipo, Sucupira, Suren, Teak, Tauari, Tiama, Tola, Virola, White Lauan, White Meranti, White Seraya, Yellow Meranti.';

(ii) in heading No. 44.07, in column (3), for the words "FINGER-JOINTED", the words "END-JOINTED" shall be substituted;

(iii) in heading No. 44.08, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

"SHEETS FOR VENEERING (INCLUDING THOSE OBTAINED BY SLICING LAMINATED WOOD), FOR PLYWOOD OR FOR OTHER SIMILAR LAMINATED WOOD AND OTHER WOOD, SAWN LENGTHWISE, SLICED OR PEELLED, WHETHER OR NOT PLANED, SANDED, SPLICED OR END-JOINTED, OF A THICKNESS NOT EXCEEDING 6 MM.";

(iv) in heading No. 44.09, in column (3), for the words "EDGES OR FACES, WHETHER OR NOT PLANED, SANDED OR FINGER JOINTED", the words "EDGES, ENDS OR FACES, WHETHER OR NOT PLANED, SANDED OR END-JOINTED" shall be substituted;

(32) in Chapter 46, in heading No. 46.01, sub-heading No. 4601.10 and the entries relating thereto shall be omitted;

(33) in Chapter 47,—

(i) in sub-heading No. 4707.10, for the entry in column (3), the following entry shall be substituted, namely:—

"-Unbleached kraft paper or paperboard or corrugated paper or paperboard";

(ii) in sub-heading No. 4707.20, in column (3), for the words "Of other paper", the words "Other paper" shall be substituted;

(iii) in sub-heading No. 4707.30, in column (3), for the words "Of paper", the word "Paper" shall be substituted;

For paper or paperboard weighing not more than 150 g/m²:

(a) containing 10% or more of fibres obtained by a mechanical or chemi-mechanical process, and

1. weighing not more than 80 g/m², or

2. coloured throughout the mass; or

(b) containing more than 8% ash, and

1. weighing not more than 80 g/m², or

2. coloured throughout the mass; or

(c) containing more than 3% ash and having a brightness of 60% or more; or

(d) containing more than 3% but not more than 8% ash, having a brightness less than 60%, and a burst index equal to or less than 2.5 kPa. m²/g; or

(e) containing 3% ash or less, having a brightness of 60% or more and a burst index equal to or less than 2.5 kPa.m²/g.

For paper or paperboard weighing more than 150 g/m²:

(a) coloured throughout the mass; or

(b) having a brightness of 60% or more, and

1. A caliper of 225 micrometres (microns) or less, or

2. A caliper of more than 225 micrometres (microns) but not more than 508 micrometres (microns) and an ash content of more than 3%; or

(c) having a brightness of less than 60%, a caliper of 254 micrometres (microns) or less and an ash content of more than 8%.

Heading 48.02 does not, however, cover filter paper or paperboard (including tea-bag paper) or felt paper or paperboard.’;

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The object of the Bill is to give effect to the financial proposals of the Central Government for the financial year 2001-2002. The notes on clauses explain the various provisions contained in the Bill.

YASHWANT SINHA.

NEW DELHI;
The 28th February, 2001.

PRESIDENT'S RECOMMENDATION UNDER ARTICLES 117 AND 274 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA

[Copy of letter No. F. 3(1)-B(D)/2001, dated the 28th February, 2001 from Shri Yashwant Sinha, Minister of Finance, to the Secretary-General, Lok Sabha.]

The President, having been informed of the subject matter of the proposed Bill, recommends under clause (1) of article 117, read with clause (1) of article 274, of the Constitution of India, the introduction of the Finance Bill, 2001 to the Lok Sabha and also recommends to the Lok Sabha the consideration of the Bill.

2. The Bill will be introduced in the Lok Sabha immediately after the presentation of the Budget on the 28th February, 2001.

NOTES ON CLAUSES

Income-tax

Clause 2, read with the First Schedule to the Bill, seeks to specify the rates at which income-tax is to be levied on income chargeable to tax for the assessment year 2001-2002. Further, it lays down the rates at which tax is to be deducted at source during the financial year 2001-2002 from income subject to such deduction under the Income-tax Act; and the rates at which "advance tax" is to be paid, tax is to be deducted at source from income chargeable under the head "Salaries" and tax is to be calculated and charged in special cases for the financial year 2001-2002.

Rates of income-tax for the assessment year 2001-2002

Part I of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income is liable to tax for the assessment year 2001-2002. These rates are the same as those specified in Part III of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2000, for the purposes of deduction of tax at source from "Salaries", computation of "advance tax" and charging of income-tax in special cases during the financial year 2000-2001.

Rates for deduction of tax at source during the financial year 2001-2002 from income other than "Salaries"

Part II of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income-tax is to be deducted at source during the financial year 2001-2002 from incomes other than "Salaries". These rates are broadly the same as those specified in Part II of the First Schedule to the Finance Act, 2000, for the purposes of deduction of income-tax at source during the financial year 2000-2001. However, the rates of tax to be deducted on income by way of winnings from lotteries and crossword puzzles, and income by way of winnings from horse races, have been reduced from forty per cent. to thirty per cent. Tax on income by way of winnings from card games and other games of any sort is required to be deducted at source at the rate of thirty per cent. The amount of tax so deducted shall be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union calculated at the rate of two per cent. of such income-tax except in the case of a foreign company.

Rates for deduction of tax at source from "Salaries" computation of "advance tax" and charging of income-tax in special cases during the financial year 2001-2002

Part III of the First Schedule to the Bill specifies the rates at which income-tax is to be deducted at source from "Salaries" and also the rates at which "advance tax" is to be paid and income-tax is to be calculated or charged in special cases for the financial year 2001-2002.

Paragraph A of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax in the case of every individual or Hindu undivided family or every association of persons or body of individuals, whether incorporated or not, or every artificial juridical person referred to in sub-clause (vii) of clause (31) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act, not being a case to which any other Paragraph of Part III applies. No change is proposed in the rate structure.

Paragraph B of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax in the case of every co-operative society. In such cases, the rates of tax will continue to be the same as those specified for assessment year 2001-2002, except for co-operative societies having income above thirty thousand rupees where the tax payable will be three thousand rupees plus thirty per cent. of the amount by which the total income exceeds twenty thousand rupees.

Paragraph C of this Part specifies the rate of income-tax in the case of every firm. In such cases, the rate of tax will continue to be the same as that specified for assessment year 2001-2002.

Paragraph D of this Part specifies the rate of income-tax in the case of every local authority. In such cases, the rate of tax will continue to be the same as that specified for assessment year 2001-2002.

Paragraph E of this Part specifies the rates of income-tax in the case of companies. In such cases, the rates of tax will continue to be the same as those specified for assessment year 2001-2002. The rate of tax in the case of domestic companies will continue to be thirty-five per cent. and in the case of foreign companies it will be forty-eight per cent.

In the case of every person being an individual, Hindu undivided family, association of persons or body of individuals whose income exceeds sixty thousand rupees and where income-tax is to be deducted at source or "advance tax" is payable in accordance with the provisions of this Part such amount of income-tax after allowing rebate under Chapter VIII-A, is proposed to be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union calculated at the rate of two per cent. of such tax.

In the case of every artificial juridical person, co-operative society, firm, local authority or domestic company where income-tax is to be computed in accordance with the provisions of this Part, such amount of income-tax is proposed to be increased by a surcharge for purposes of the Union calculated at the rate of two per cent. of such tax.

Clause 3 seeks to amend section 2 of the Income-tax Act relating to definitions.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to insert a new sub-clause (12A) to define "books or books of account" to include ledgers, day-books, cash books, account books and other books whether kept in the written form or as print-outs of data stored in a floppy, disc, tape or any other form of electro-magnetic data storage device.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to insert a new sub-clause (22AA) to define "document" to include electronic record as defined in clause (t) of sub-section (1) of section 2 of the Information Technology Act, 2000.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

The existing section 194B of the Income-tax Act, inter alia, provides for deduction of income-tax at source on the income by way of winnings from any lottery at the rates in force. It is proposed to amend the said section 194B vide clause 65 of the Bill to provide for deduction of income-tax at source on the income by way of winnings from card game and other game of any sort. Section 115BB of the Income-tax Act provides for the rate at which income-tax shall be payable on the income by way of winnings from any lottery or card game and other game of any sort. Sub-clause (ix) of clause (24) of section 2 defines the expression "income" to include, inter alia, any winnings from lotteries or card games and other games of any sort.

Sub-clause (c) seeks to insert an Explanation in the said sub-clause (ix) to define the expressions "lottery" to include winnings from prizes awarded to any person by draw of lots or by chance or in any other manner whatsoever under any scheme or arrangement by whatever name called; and "card game and other game of any sort" to include any game show, an entertainment programme on television or electronic mode, in which people compete to win prizes or any other similar game.

Sub-clause (d) seeks to define the expression "insurer" used in the proposed amendments vide clauses 34 to 36 and 43. The insurer shall mean an Indian insurance company which has been granted a certificate of registration under the Insurance Act, 1938.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 4 seeks to amend section 9 of the Income-tax Act relating to income deemed to accrue or arise in India.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (vi) of sub-section (1) of the said section, income by way of royalty payable shall be deemed to accrue or arise in India subject to certain conditions specified in that clause. The term "royalty" has been defined in Explanation 2 to this clause.

It is proposed to include the use or right to use any industrial, commercial or scientific equipment within the scope of the said Explanation.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 5 seeks to amend section 10 of the Income-tax Act relating to incomes not included in the total income.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (10C), any amount received by an employee of a public sector company or any other company or an authority established under a Central, State or Provincial Act or a local authority or a co-operative society or a University or an Indian Institute of Technology or a notified institute of management, at the time of his voluntary retirement, or termination of his service in accordance with any scheme or schemes of voluntary retirement, or in the case of a public sector company, a scheme of voluntary separation, to the extent such amount does not exceed five lakh rupees, is not included in computing his total income.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to enlarge the scope of the exemption by extending it to an employee of any State Government. The amount received by employees under scheme or schemes of voluntary retirement of any State Government shall be exempt with effect from 1st April, 2001 in accordance with the proposed amendment.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

This sub-clause also proposes to enlarge the scope of the exemption by extending it to an employee of the Central Government.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to substitute item (a) and amend items (b), (c), (d), (e) and (f) of sub-clause (iv) of clause (15) so as to provide that the interest payable on any moneys borrowed, or on moneys borrowed under an agreement approved before 1st June, 2001 by Government or a local authority or by an industrial undertaking or by any other financial institution or a banking company under the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 or by certain Government companies as specified in those items, shall not be included in the total income.

This sub-clause also proposes to substitute Explanation 1A so as to provide that the expression "interest" shall not include any interest paid on delayed payment of loan or on default if it is in excess of two per cent. per annum over the rate of interest payable in terms of such loan.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (23AAB), any income of a fund set up by the Life Insurance Corporation of India on or after 1st October, 1996 under a pension scheme to which contribution is made by any person and which is approved by the Controller of Insurance, is exempt from income-tax.

Sub-clause (c) seeks to provide that income of any fund set up by any other insurer who is approved by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority shall also be eligible for exemption.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (d) seeks to insert a new clause (23BBD) so as to exempt any income of the Secretariat of the Asian Organisation of the Supreme Audit Institutions, registered as ASOSAI SECRETARIAT under the Societies Registration Act, 1860, for a period of three previous years relevant to the assessment years beginning on the 1st day of April, 2001.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment years 2001-2002, 2002-2003 and 2003-2004.

Under the existing provision, the income of any fund or institution referred to in sub-clause (iv) or any trust or institution referred to in sub-clause (v) or any university or other educational institution or hospital or other medical institution referred to in sub-clauses (vi) and (via) of clause (23C) of section 10, is not exempt under the said sub-clauses unless the income is applied or accumulated for application, wholly and exclusively to the objects for which the fund, etc., is established. At present, no maximum time has been provided for accumulation of such income.

Sub-clause (e) seeks to provide that after 1st April, 2001, if any income of the fund or trust or institution or university or other educational institution or hospital or other medical institution, has not been applied to the objects for which the fund, etc., is established and such income is accumulated, the maximum period of such accumulation will be limited to five years only.

This sub-clause further proposes to amend third proviso to this clause so as to provide that the educational and medical institutions referred to in sub-clauses (vi) and (via) holding any assets in the form of equity shares of a public company, including bonus shares thereon, and forming part of their corpus before 1st June, 1998, will not be denied exemption, even if these are not invested in the assets specified under sub-section (5) of section 11 of the Income-tax Act.

This sub-clause also seeks to insert a new proviso after the eighth proviso so as to provide that an institution or trust having total receipts of more than ten lakh rupees, or a university or other educational institution or hospital or other medical institution having total receipts exceeding one crore rupees, shall publish its accounts in a local newspaper and furnish a copy of such newspaper along with the application prescribed in clause (23C).

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (23FB), any income of a venture capital company or a venture capital fund set up to raise funds for investment in a venture capital undertaking is not included in the total income of the previous year. As per the Explanation to this clause, "venture capital undertaking" means a domestic company whose shares are not listed in a recognised stock exchange in India. If the shares of such venture capital undertaking get listed subsequently in a recognised stock exchange and if the initial investment made continues, the venture capital company and venture capital fund may lose exemption by virtue of this Explanation.

Sub-clause (f) seeks to insert another Explanation in clause (23FB) to clarify that the income of a venture capital company or venture capital fund shall continue to be exempt even if the shares of the venture capital undertaking in which the venture capital company or venture capital fund has made the initial investment, are subsequently listed in a recognised stock exchange in India.

The "venture capital fund" has been defined in clause (23FB) as a fund operating under a trust deed registered under the provisions of the Registration Act, 1908. It is also proposed to clarify that the fund operating as a venture capital scheme made by the Unit Trust of India established under the Unit Trust of India Act, 1963, shall be within the scope of the said clause.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (g) seeks to amend clause (23G). Under the existing provision contained in this clause, any income by way of dividends, other than dividends referred to in section 115-O, interest or long-term capital gains of an infrastructure capital fund or an infrastructure capital company from investments made by way of shares or long-term finance in any enterprise wholly engaged in the business of (i) developing, (ii) maintaining and operating, or (iii) developing, maintaining and operating any infrastructure facility and which has been approved by the Central Government, is exempt. It is proposed to enlarge the scope of the exemption by extending it to co-operative banks also.

This sub-clause further seeks to provide that any income by way of dividends, other than dividends referred to in section 115-O, interest or long-term capital gains of an infrastructure capital fund or an infrastructure capital company, from investments in any enterprise or undertaking wholly engaged in the business referred to in sub-section (4) of section 80-IA shall not be included in computing the total income.

This sub-clause also seeks to omit clause (c) to Explanation 1 and to include and define the expressions "co-operative banks" and "interest" for the purposes of the said clause.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provisions contained in sub-clauses (ii) and (iii) of clause (33), any income by way of income received in respect of units from the Unit Trust of India or units of a mutual fund specified under clause (23D) is not included while computing the total income.

Sub-clause (h) seeks to amend the said clause (33) so as to clarify that income received, in respect of units of Unit Trust of India or a mutual fund on transfer of such units to persons other than Unit Trust of India or a mutual fund shall not be exempt.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2000 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2000-2001 and subsequent years.

Clause 6 seeks to amend section 10A of the Income-tax Act relating to newly established undertakings in free trade zone, etc.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1) of the said section, any profits and gains derived by an assessee from an undertaking to which this section applies shall not be included in the total income of the assessee in respect of ten consecutive assessment years beginning with the assessment year relevant to the previous year in which the undertaking begins to manufacture or produce such articles or things or computer software.

The second proviso to sub-section (1) provides that where an undertaking initially located in any free trade zone or export processing zone is subsequently located in a special economic zone by reason of conversion of such free trade zone or export processing zone into a special economic zone, the said period of ten consecutive assessment years is reckoned from the assessment year relevant to the previous year in which such undertaking was first set up in such free trade zone or export processing zone.

Item (i) of sub-clause (a) seeks to amend the second proviso to sub-section (1) so as to provide that such period of ten consecutive assessment years shall be reckoned from the assessment year relevant to the previous year in which such undertaking began to manufacture or produce such articles or things or computer software in the free trade zone or export processing zone.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in the third proviso to sub-section (1), the profits and gains derived from such domestic sales of articles or things or computer software as do not exceed twenty-five per cent. of total sales of such undertaking shall be deemed to be the profits and gains derived from the export of articles or things or computer software.

Item (ii) of sub-clause (a) seeks to omit the third proviso to disallow the profits and gains derived from such domestic sales included in the profits and gains derived from the export of such articles or things or computer software.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (4), the profits derived from export of articles or things or computer software shall be the amount which bears to the profits of the business, the same proportion as the export turnover in respect of such articles or things or computer software bears to the total turnover of the business carried on by the assessee.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to clarify that such proportions shall be calculated with reference to the profits and gains of the business of the undertaking and not from any other business carried on by the assessee.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Item (i) of sub-clause (c) seeks to amend Explanation 1 to the said section so as to clarify that the company referred to in the Explanation shall be the company in which the public are not substantially interested. The company in which the public are substantially interested has been defined in clause (18) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act.

Item (ii) of sub-clause (c) seeks to amend clause (iv) of Explanation 2 to the said sub-section to clarify that the "export turnover" for computation of profits would relate to profits of the undertaking and not to the business as a whole.

Item (iii) of sub-clause (c) seeks to insert Explanation 3 to the aforesaid sub-section to clarify that the profits and gains derived from on site development of computer software (including services for development of software) outside India shall be deemed to be the profits and gains derived from the export of computer software outside India.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Clause 7 seeks to amend section 10B of the Income-tax Act relating to newly established hundred per cent. export-oriented undertakings.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1) of the said section, any profits and gains derived by an assessee from a hundred per cent. export-oriented undertaking to which this section applies shall not be included in the total income of the assessee for ten consecutive assessment years beginning with the assessment year relevant to the previous year in which the undertaking begins to manufacture or produce such articles or things or computer software.

Under the existing provision contained in the second proviso to the said sub-section (1), the profits and gains derived from such domestic sales of articles or things or computer software as do not exceed twenty-five per cent. of total sales of such undertaking shall be deemed to be the profits and gains derived from the export of articles or things or computer software.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to omit the second proviso to disallow the profits and gains derived from such domestic sales included in the profits and gains derived from the export of such articles or things or computer software.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (4) of the said section, the profits derived from export of articles or things or computer software shall be the amount which bears to the profits of the business, the same proportion as the export turnover in respect of such articles or things or computer software bears to the total turnover of the business carried on by the assessee.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to clarify that such proportion shall be calculated with reference to the profits and gains of the business of the undertaking and not from any other business carried on by the assessee.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Item (i) of sub-clause (c) seeks to amend Explanation 1 to the aforesaid section so as to clarify that the company referred to in the said Explanation shall be the company in which the public are not substantially interested. The company in which the public are substantially interested has been defined in clause (18) of section 2 of the Income-tax Act.

Item (ii) of sub-clause (c) seeks to amend clause (iii) of Explanation 2 to the said sub-section (4) to clarify that the "export turnover" for computation of profits would relate to profits of the undertaking and not to the business as a whole.

Item (iii) of sub-clause (c) seeks to insert Explanation 3 to the aforesaid section to clarify that the profits and gains derived from on site development of computer software (including services for development of software) outside India shall be deemed to be the profits and gains derived from the export of computer software outside India.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Clause 8 seeks to insert new section 10BB in the Income-tax Act relating to meaning of computer programmes in certain cases.

It is proposed to insert a new section so as to clarify that the profits and gains derived by an undertaking from the production of computer programmes under section 10B as it stood prior to its substitution by section 7 of the Finance Act, 2000 shall be construed as if for the words "computer programmes", the words "computer programmes or processing or management of electronic data" had been substituted in that section.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 1994 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 1994-1995 and subsequent years.

Clause 9 seeks to amend section 11 of the Income-tax Act relating to income from property held for charitable or religious purposes.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (2) of the said section, if seventy-five per cent. of the income derived from property held for charitable or religious purposes is not applied for such purposes, then, the portion not applied is permitted to be accumulated or set apart for application for such purposes for a period of ten years.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section so as to reduce the period of accumulation in respect of the income accumulated after 1st April, 2001 from ten years to five years.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 10 seeks to amend section 12A of the Income-tax Act relating to conditions as to registration of trusts, etc.

Section 12A provides that two conditions of registration and audit of its accounts must be fulfilled by any trust or institution before claiming exemption under sections 11 and 12. It is proposed to add two more conditions so as to provide that where the total income of the trust or institution as computed under the Income-tax Act without giving effect to the provisions of sections 11 and 12 exceeds ten lakh rupees in any previous year, the trust or institution, as the case may be, shall publish its accounts in a local newspaper and furnish a copy of such newspaper along with the return of income.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 11 seeks to insert a new section 14A in the Income-tax Act relating to expenditure incurred in relation to income not includable in the total income.

The new section seeks to provide that no deduction shall be made in respect of expenditure incurred by the assessee in relation to income which does not form part of the total income under the Act.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 1962 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 1962-63 and subsequent years.

Clause 12 seeks to amend section 16 of the Income-tax Act relating to deductions from salaries.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-clause (a) of clause (ii), a deduction of entertainment allowance is allowed to an assessee who is in receipt of a salary from the Government. The deduction allowable in such cases is a sum equal to one-fifth of the salary or five thousand rupees, whichever is less. Sub-clause (b) of clause (ii) provides for a similar deduction in case of other assessee in receipt of entertainment allowance who have been continuously in receipt of such allowance regularly from the present employer from a date before the 1st day of April, 1955. The deduction in such cases is restricted to the entertainment allowance received from such employer before the 1st day of April, 1955 or a sum equal to one-fifth of salary or seven thousand five hundred rupees, whichever is the least.

It is proposed to delete the said clause (ii) to discontinue deduction for entertainment allowance provided in sub-clause (b) to the persons other than those employed in the Government.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 13 seeks to amend section 17 of the Income-tax Act relating to the definitions of "salary", "perquisite" and "profits in lieu of salary".

Under the existing provision contained in clause (2) of the said section, the value of any benefit or amenity granted or provided free of cost or at concessional rate by an employer to an employee (not being a director of a company or a person who has a substantial interest in the company) is not regarded as "perquisite" received by the employee where the salary exclusive of the value of perquisites other than by way of monetary payment of such employee does not exceed twenty-four thousand rupees.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to amend item (c) of sub-clause (iii) of clause (2) to increase the monetary limit of salary from twenty-four thousand rupees to fifty thousand rupees and also seeks to insert a new sub-clause (viii) in the said clause (2) so as to provide that the value of any fringe benefit or amenity provided to an employee shall be determined in such manner as may be prescribed.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-clause (iii) of clause (2) of the said section, the value of any benefit or amenity granted or provided free of cost or at concessional rate in the cases specified therein shall be included in the perquisite. The proviso to sub-clause (iii) provides that the said sub-clause (iii) shall not apply to the value of any benefit provided directly or indirectly by a company free of cost or at a concessional rate to its employees by way of allotment of shares, debentures or warrants under the Employees' Stock Option Plan or Scheme of the said company.

It is further proposed to amend the proviso to sub-clause (iii) to provide that the provision contained in the said sub-clause (iii) shall not apply if the shares, debentures or warrants are allotted by a company to its employees under the Employees' Stock Option Scheme or Employees' Stock Purchase Scheme in accordance with the guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

It is also proposed to insert a new sub-clause (viii) in clause (2).

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to insert a new sub-clause (iii) in clause (3) of the said section so as to include any amount due to or received, whether in lump sum or otherwise, by any assessee from any person before joining any employment, or after cessation of such employment as income of that person under the head "Salaries".

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 14 seeks to substitute new section for section 23 of the Income-tax Act relating to determination of annual value of house property.

The existing provision of the said section provides for the determination of annual value of a property in certain circumstances including where the property is let, or is self-occupied, or is vacant, or is partially let, or is let for part of the year. The annual value so determined is subject to the deductions allowable under section 24, including deductions on account of vacancy for any part of the year in respect of the property let, and on account of rent which cannot be realised.

It is proposed to substitute the said section so as to provide for determination of annual value in certain circumstances specified in the proposed new section after allowing deductions in computing the annual value on account of vacancy and unrealised rent.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 15 seeks to substitute new section for section 24 of the Income-tax Act relating to deductions from income from house property.

Under the existing provisions contained in the said section, the income chargeable under the head "Income from house property" is, in certain cases, computed after making deductions of one-fourth of the annual value in respect of repairs of, and collection of rent from, the property; the amount of insurance premium paid; any annual charge in respect of the property (not being a charge created by the assessee voluntarily or a capital charge); ground rent; interest on capital borrowed for acquiring, constructing, repairing, renewing or reconstructing the property; land revenue or any other tax levied by the State Government; part of the annual value proportionate to the period during which a property which is let was vacant; and the amount of rent subject to rules made in this behalf which the assessee cannot realise.

It is proposed to substitute the said section so as to provide for a deduction of an amount equal to thirty per cent. of the annual value while computing the income chargeable under the head "Income from house property".

It is also proposed, inter alia, to provide for a deduction up to an amount of one lakh fifty thousand rupees payable as interest on capital borrowed on or after 1st April, 1999 for the acquisition and construction of a property, where such acquisition or construction is completed before 1st April, 2003 and to be occupied or occupied by the assessee for his own residence.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 16 seeks to amend section 25 of the Income-tax Act relating to amounts not deductible from income from house property.

Under the existing provision of the said section, any annual charge or interest chargeable to tax under the Income-tax Act, which is payable outside India, on which tax has not been paid or deducted under Chapter XVIIB of the said Act and in respect of which there is no person in India who may be treated as an agent under section 163, shall not be deducted in computing the income chargeable under the head "Income from house property".

It is proposed to omit reference to annual charge in the said section. The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 17 seeks to amend section 25A of the Income-tax Act relating to special provision for cases where unrealised rent allowed as deduction is realised subsequently.

Under the existing provision contained in the said section, where a deduction has been made under section 24 in the assessment for any year in respect of rent from property which the assessee cannot realise, and subsequently during any previous year, the assessee has realised any amount in respect of such rent, the amount so realised shall be deemed to be income chargeable under the head "Income from house property" and shall be charged to tax without making any deduction under section 23 or section 24 as the income of that previous year, whether the assessee is the owner of the property in that year or not.

It is proposed to amend the said section so as to provide that the provision of this section shall apply so far as it relates to deduction under section 23 or section 24, as it stood immediately before its substitution proposed in the Bill. Sections 23 and 24 of the Income-tax Act are proposed to be substituted vide clauses 14 and 15 of the Bill. The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 18 seeks to insert a new section 25AA in the Income-tax Act relating to unrealised rent received subsequently to be charged to income-tax.

It is proposed to insert a new section to provide that where the assessee cannot realise rent from a property let to a tenant and subsequently the assessee has realised any amount in respect of such rent, the amount so realised shall be deemed to be income chargeable under the head "Income from house property" and accordingly charged to income-tax as the income of that previous year in which such rent is realised whether or not the assessee is the owner of that property in that previous year. Sections 23 and 24 are proposed to be substituted vide clauses 14 and 15 of the Bill. The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 19 seeks to amend section 25B of the Income-tax Act relating to special provision for arrears of rent received.

Under the existing provision, where the assessee receives any amount by way of arrears of rent from property not charged to income-tax for any previous year, the amount received, after deducting a sum equal to one-fourth of such amount for repairs of, and collection of rent from, the property is deemed to be the income chargeable under the head "Income from house property" of the year in which such rent is received.

It is proposed to amend the said section to provide that the amount of arrears of rent so received, after deducting a sum equal to thirty per cent. of such amount instead of the said one-fourth of such amount, shall be deemed to be such income chargeable under the head "Income from house property" of such previous year. The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 20 seeks to amend section 27 of the Income-tax Act relating to the definition of the expressions "owner of house property" and "annual charge", etc.

The existing provision of the said section provides definitions, inter alia, of the expressions "annual charge" and "capital charge".

It is proposed to omit definitions of the expressions "annual charge" and "capital charge". The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 21 seeks to amend section 32 of the Income-tax Act relating to depreciation.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to insert a new Explanation 5 in clause (ii) of sub-section (1) of the said section so as to clarify that the provisions of sub-section (1) of section 32 shall apply whether or not the assessee has claimed the deduction for depreciation in computing his total income.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to substitute sub-section (2) so as to provide that where full effect cannot be given to the depreciation allowance in any previous year owing to there being no profits or gains chargeable for that previous year or owing to the profits or gains chargeable being less than the allowance, the depreciation allowance or part thereof to which effect has not been given shall be added to the amount of allowance for depreciation for the following previous year, or for the succeeding previous years till such time the full effect has been given to the depreciation allowance claimed by the assessee.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 22 seeks to amend section 33AB of the Income-tax Act relating to tea development account.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), if an assessee carrying on the business of growing and manufacturing tea in India has, during the previous year, deposited with the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development any amount in a special account maintained by such assessee with that Bank in accordance with the scheme approved in this behalf by the Tea Board or if an assessee opens an account, to be known as Tea Deposit Account, in accordance with a scheme framed by the Tea Board with the previous approval of the Central Government, such assessee is allowed a deduction of the amount so deposited during the previous year or twenty per cent. of the profits from the business of growing or manufacturing tea in India, whichever is less.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section (1) so as to enhance the said limit of deduction from twenty per cent. to forty per cent.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 23 seeks to amend section 35 of the Income-tax Act relating to expenditure on scientific research.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (2AA), any sum paid by an assessee to an approved National Laboratory or a University or an Indian Institute of Technology for carrying out approved programme of scientific research is eligible for weighted deduction of one and one-fourth times of the sum so paid.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to extend the said sub-section to such specified persons as may be approved by the prescribed authority.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (1) of sub-section (2AB), a company engaged in the business of manufacture or production of any drugs, pharmaceuticals, electronic equipments, computers, telecommunication equipments, chemicals or any other article or thing notified by the Board is allowed a deduction of a sum equal to one and one-half times of the expenditure incurred by it on scientific research (not being expenditure in the nature of cost of any land or building) on in-house research and development facility, as approved by the prescribed authority.

Sub-clause (b) proposes to amend the said clause so as to allow the aforesaid deduction to a company engaged in the business of bio-technology also.

This sub-clause also proposes to insert an Explanation to clause (1) of sub-section (2AB) so as to provide that the expenditure on scientific research on in-house research and development in relation to drugs and pharmaceuticals under the said clause shall include expenditure incurred on clinical drug trial, obtaining approval from any regulatory authority under any Central, State or Provincial Act and filing an application for a patent under the Patents Act, 1970.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 24 seeks to insert a new section 35DDA in the Income-tax Act relating to amortisation of expenditure incurred under voluntary retirement scheme.

Sub-section (1) of the said new section proposes to provide that where an assessee incurs any expenditure in any previous year by way of payment of any sum to an employee at the time of his voluntary retirement under any scheme of voluntary retirement framed in accordance with the guidelines prescribed under clause (10C) of section 10, one-fifth of the amount so paid shall be deducted in computing the profits and gains of the business for that previous year, and the balance shall be deducted in equal instalments for each of the four immediately succeeding previous years.

Sub-section (2) of the said new section proposes to provide that no deduction shall be allowed in respect of the expenditure mentioned in sub-section (1) under any other provision of the said Act.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 25 seeks to amend section 43B of the Income-tax Act relating to certain deductions to be allowed only on actual payment.

Sub-clause (ii) of this clause seeks to insert a new clause (f) in section 43B so as to extend the scope of this section to include any sum payable by an employer in lieu of any leave at the credit of his employee as a deduction only in computing the income of that previous year in which such sum is actually paid.

Sub-clause (iii) seeks to insert the words, brackets and letter "or clause (f)" in the first proviso to the said section so as to make the proviso applicable to clause (f).

Sub-clause (iv) seeks to insert Explanation 3B so as to provide that where a deduction in respect of any sum referred to in clause (f) of the said section is allowed in computing the income referred to in section 28 of the previous year (being a previous year relevant to the assessment year commencing on the 1st day of April, 2001, or any earlier assessment year) in which the liability to pay such sum was incurred by the assessee, the assessee shall not be entitled to any deduction under this section in respect of such sum in computing the income of the previous year in which the sum is actually paid by him.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent assessment years.

Clause 26 seeks to amend section 44AB of the Income-tax Act relating to audit of accounts of certain persons carrying on business or profession.

Under the existing provision contained in the second proviso to the said section, where a person is required by or under any other law to get his accounts audited, it shall be sufficient compliance with the provisions of that section if such person gets his accounts audited under such law before the specified date and furnishes by that date, the report of the audit as required under such other law and a further report in the form prescribed under the aforesaid section.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to amend the second proviso so as to provide that the said further report shall be furnished by an accountant.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (ii) of Explanation to the said section, the specified date in the case of an assessee being a company for getting his accounts of the previous year audited by an accountant and furnishing the report of such audit in the prescribed form is the 30th November of the assessment year and in any other case, the specified date is the 31st October of the assessment year.

Sub-clause (b) proposes to substitute the said clause (ii) of the Explanation to provide that the specified date in the case of an assessee being a company shall be the 31st October and in any other case the specified date shall be the 31st July of the assessment year.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Clause 27 seeks to amend section 47 of the Income-tax Act relating to transactions not regarded as transfer.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (iii) of section 47, any transfer of a capital asset under a gift or will or an irrevocable trust is not regarded as transfer. The proviso to the said clause (iii) provides that the provisions contained in clause (iii) shall not apply to a transfer under a gift or an irrevocable trust of a capital asset being shares, debentures or warrants allotted by a company directly or indirectly to its employees under the Employees' Stock Option Plan or Scheme.

It is proposed to amend the said proviso to clause (iii) to provide that the provisions contained in that clause shall not apply if the shares, debentures or warrants are allotted by a company to its employees under the Employees' Stock Option Scheme or Employees' Stock Purchase Scheme in accordance with the guidelines issued by the Securities and Exchange Board of India.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provisions contained in clause (viiA) of section 47, any transfer of a capital asset, being bonds or shares referred to in sub-section (1) of section 115AC, made outside India by a non-resident to another non-resident is not regarded as a transfer.

It is proposed to substitute section 115AC vide clause 47 of the Bill. As a consequence to this, it is proposed to substitute the word "shares" used in clause (viiA) of section 47 with the words "Global Depository Receipts". The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 28 seeks to amend section 49 of the Income-tax Act relating to cost with reference to certain modes of acquisition.

It is proposed to insert a new sub-section (2AA) to provide that where the capital gain arises from the transfer of a share, debenture or warrant, which has been taken into account while computing the value of perquisite under clause (2) of section 17, the cost of acquisition of such share, debenture or warrant shall be the value under that sub-section.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Clause 29 seeks to amend section 54EC of the Income-tax Act which provides that the capital gain is not to be charged on investment in certain bonds.

The capital gain arising from the transfer of a long-term capital asset is exempt from tax if such capital gain is invested in a long-term specified asset, being any bond redeemable after three years, issued on or after 1st April, 2000 by the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development or the National Highways Authority of India.

It is proposed to substitute item (b) of the Explanation below sub-section (3) of the said section to extend the benefit of exemption under the said section to the bonds of the Rural Electrification Corporation Limited, a company formed and registered under the Companies Act, 1956, if the capital gain arising from the transfer of a long-term capital asset is invested in a long-term specified asset, being any bond redeemable after three years, issued on or after 1st April, 2001, by the said Corporation.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 30 seeks to insert section 54ED in the Income-tax Act to provide that capital gain on transfer of certain listed securities or units shall not be charged in certain cases.

Sub-section (1) of the proposed new section seeks to provide that the capital gain arising from transfer of a long-term capital asset, being listed securities or unit of a mutual fund or of the Unit Trust of India shall be exempt from tax if such capital gain is invested in equity shares forming part of an eligible issue of capital, offered for subscription to the public. If part of the capital gain is so invested in acquiring the said equity shares, proportionate exemption will be available.

Explanation to the proposed sub-section (1) defines the expressions "eligible issue of capital", "listed securities" and "unit" for the purposes of the said sub-section.

Sub-section (2) of the proposed new section seeks to provide that the exemption allowed under sub-section (1) will be subject to the condition that the said equity shares are held for a minimum period of one year, failing which the exemption allowed on the basis of such investment will be disallowed and the amount so disallowed will be deemed to be the income chargeable to tax under the head "Capital gains" of the previous year in which such equity shares are sold or otherwise transferred.

Sub-section (3) of the proposed new section seeks to provide that where the cost of the specified equity shares has been taken into account for the purposes of clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1), a deduction from the amount of income-tax with reference to such cost shall not be allowed under section 88.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 31 seeks to amend section 54H of the Income-tax Act relating to extension of time for acquiring new asset or depositing or investing amount of capital gain.

Under the existing provisions contained in section 54H, where the transfer of original asset is by way of compulsory acquisition under any law and the amount of compensation awarded for such acquisition is not received by the assessee on the date of such transfer, the period of acquiring the new asset by the assessee referred to in sections 54, 54B, 54D, 54EA, 54EB and 54F or, as the case may be, the period available to the assessee under the said sections, for depositing or investing the amount of capital gain in relation to such compensation as is not received on the date of transfer, shall be reckoned from the date of receipt of such compensation. Section 54EC was inserted by the Finance Act, 2000 to provide for exemption from tax on long-term capital gains on investments in select bonds, directed exclusively at agricultural and rural finance and highway infrastructure. Sections 54EA and 54EB were omitted by the said Act.

It is proposed to omit reference to sections 54EA and 54EB and insert reference to section 54EC in section 54H. The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Clause 32 seeks to amend section 55 of the Income-tax Act relating to meaning of the expressions "adjusted", "cost of improvement" and "cost of acquisition".

Under the existing provision contained in clause (a) of sub-section (2), the cost of acquisition in relation to a capital asset, being goodwill of a business or a right to manufacture, produce or process any article or thing, tenancy rights, stage carriage permits or loom hours, shall be taken to be the purchase price in case the asset is purchased by the assessee from a previous owner and in any other case such cost shall be taken to be nil.

It is proposed to amend clause (a) of sub-section (2) to provide that the cost of acquisition in relation to a trade mark or brand name associated with a business shall also be taken to be the purchase price in case the asset is purchased from a previous owner and nil in any other case.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 33 seeks to amend section 72A of the Income-tax Act relating to carry forward and set-off of accumulated loss and unabsorbed depreciation allowance in amalgamation or demerger, etc.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), the set-off and carry forward of loss and allowance for depreciation under the Income-tax Act is allowed in the case of an amalgamation of a company owning an industrial undertaking or a ship with another company.

It is proposed to amend sub-section (7) to define the expression "industrial undertaking" so as to mean any undertaking engaged in the manufacture or processing of goods or the manufacture of computer software or the business of generation or distribution of electricity or any other form of power or mining or the construction of ships, aircrafts or rail systems.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2000 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2000-2001 and subsequent years.

Clause 34 seeks to amend section 80CCC of the Income-tax Act, relating to deduction in respect of contribution to certain pension funds.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), an individual is eligible for deduction of any amount paid or deposited by him in an annuity plan of the Life Insurance Corporation of India for receiving pension from a fund set up by the said Corporation, referred to in clause (23AAB) of section 10. The deduction shall be restricted to ten thousand rupees.

The proposed amendment seeks to provide that any amount paid or deposited for keeping in force any annuity plan of any other insurer shall also be eligible for deduction.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 35 seeks to amend section 80D of the Income-tax Act, relating to deduction in respect of medical insurance premia.

Under the existing provision contained in the said section, deduction of a sum not exceeding fifteen thousand rupees paid to effect or keep in force an insurance on the health of the assessee or his wife or her husband, or dependant parent or any member of his family who is a senior citizen, is allowed if such insurance is in accordance with a scheme framed in this behalf by the General Insurance Corporation of India and approved by the Central Government in this behalf.

It is proposed to substitute the proviso to sub-section (2) of the said section to provide that the amount paid under any scheme of any other insurer which is approved by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority shall also be eligible for deduction.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 36 seeks to amend section 80DD of the Income-tax Act, relating to deduction in respect of maintenance including medical treatment of handicapped dependant.

The existing provision contained in the said section provides for a deduction in respect of maintenance including medical treatment of handicapped dependant provided such amount is deposited in a scheme framed in this behalf by the Life Insurance Corporation of India or the Unit Trust of India.

The proposed amendment seeks to provide that the amount deposited in any scheme of any other insurer who is approved by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority shall also be eligible for deduction.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 37 seeks to amend section 80G of the Income-tax Act, relating to deduction in respect of donations to certain funds, charitable institutions, etc.

Under the existing provisions, an assessee is allowed a deduction from his total income in respect of donations made by him. In respect of donations to certain funds, hundred per cent. deduction is allowed.

It is proposed by clauses (a) and (b) to provide hundred per cent. deduction in respect of donations made to the National Trust for Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities constituted by the Central Government under sub-section (1) of section 3 of the National Trust for Welfare of Persons with Autism, Cerebral Palsy, Mental Retardation and Multiple Disabilities Act, 1999.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 38 seeks to amend section 80GG of the Income-tax Act relating to deductions in respect of rents paid.

Under the existing provision contained in the said section, in computing the total income of an assessee, not being an assessee having any income falling within clause (13A) of section 10, a deduction is allowable in respect of expenditure incurred by him towards payment of rent in respect of any residential accommodation occupied by him to the extent of the limits specified in the said section. However, such deduction is not allowable if any residential accommodation is owned, inter alia, by the assessee at the place where he ordinarily resides, etc., or is owned by the assessee at any other place being accommodation in the occupation of the assessee, the value of which is to be determined under sub-clause (i) of clause (a) or, as the case may be, clause (b) of sub-section (2) of section 23.

Clause 14 of the Bill seeks to substitute section 23 by a new section. It is, accordingly, proposed to amend section 80GG to substitute reference of new section 23. The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 39 seeks to amend section 80HHE of the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of profits from export of computer software, etc.

It is proposed to insert an Explanation after sub-section (1) of the said section so as to clarify that the profits and gains derived from on site development of computer software (including services for development of software) outside India shall be deemed to be the profits and gains derived from the export of computer software outside India.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Clause 40 seeks to amend section 80-IA of the Income-tax Act relating to deductions in respect of profits and gains from industrial undertakings or enterprises engaged in infrastructure development, etc.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), the deduction of hundred per cent. of profits and gains for the first five assessment years and thereafter twenty-five per cent. is allowed.

Sub-clause (a) proposes to substitute the said sub-section (1) so as to provide a deduction of hundred per cent. of profits and gains for ten consecutive assessment years for the undertakings referred in the said sub-section.

∴ This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in the proviso to sub-section (2), an assessee at his option can claim deduction for any ten consecutive assessment years out of twenty years beginning from the year in which the undertaking or the enterprise is engaged in a highway project including housing or other activities being integral part of the highway project.

Sub-clause (b) proposes to substitute the said proviso to provide that where the assessee develops, or operates and maintains or develops, operates and maintains any infrastructure facility being (a) a road including toll road, a bridge or a rail system; (b) a highway project including housing or other activities being integral part of the highway project; and (c) a water supply project, water treatment system, irrigation project, sanitation and sewerage system or solid waste management system, he may at his option claim deduction for any ten consecutive assessment years out of twenty years beginning from the year in which the undertaking or the enterprise is engaged in the said infrastructure facility. For infrastructure facility being port, airport, inland waterway or inland port, ten year tax holiday may be availed in a block of fifteen years.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (c) proposes to insert new sub-section (2A) to provide that an undertaking providing telecommunication services, specified in clause (ii) of sub-section (4) shall be allowed hundred per cent. deduction of the profits and gains of the eligible business for the first five assessment years commencing at any time during the periods as specified in sub-section (2) and thereafter, thirty per cent. of such profits and gains for further five assessment years.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (d) proposes, inter alia, to amend sub-section (3) by substituting the word "undertaking" for the words "industrial undertaking".

It is also proposed to substitute item (b) of sub-clause (i) of sub-section (4) to do away with the condition that the infrastructure facility shall be transferred to the Central Government, State Government, local authority or such other statutory body as is specified under the existing provisions.

This sub-clause also proposes to substitute the Explanation of infrastructure facility to mean (a) a road including toll road, a bridge or a rail system; (b) a highway project including housing or other activities being integral part of the highway project; (c) a water supply project, water treatment system, irrigation project, sanitation and sewerage system or solid waste management system; and (d) port, airport, inland waterways or inland port.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (ii) in sub-section (4), any undertaking which has started or starts providing telecommunication services whether basic or cellular, including radio paging, domestic satellite service, network of trunking, and electronic data interchange services at any time on or after 1st April, 1995, but before 31st March, 2000, is allowed deduction. It is proposed to substitute the said clause (ii) so as to include "broadband network" and "internet services" for the purposes of eligibility for deduction and also extend the said time limit up to the 31st March, 2003.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (iii) of sub-section (4), deduction is available to an undertaking which develops, develops and operates or maintains and operates an industrial park notified by the Central Government. It is proposed to include special economic zone to provide the same benefits as are available to such industrial park. It is further proposed to extend the period available to 31st March, 2006.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (e) also proposes to amend clause (iv) by substituting the word "undertaking" for the words "industrial undertaking". It is further proposed to extend the period available for the undertaking engaged in generation, generation and distribution, laying a network of transmission or distribution lines from the 31st March, 2003 to the 31st March, 2006.

This amendment will take effect from the 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (f) seeks to amend sub-section (7) by substituting the word "undertaking" for the words "industrial undertaking".

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (g) seeks to amend sub-section (8) to include "services" for the purposes of the sub-section.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Sub-clause (h) seeks to amend sub-section (9) by substituting the word "undertaking" for the words "industrial undertaking".

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 41 seeks to amend section 80-IB of the Income-tax Act relating to deduction in respect of profits and gains from certain industrial undertakings other than infrastructure development undertakings.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to insert the reference of the proposed sub-section (11A) in sub-section (1) of the said section. The amendment is of consequential nature.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to insert a new sub-section (11A) in the said section so as to provide that an undertaking deriving profit from the integrated business of handling, storage and transportation of food grains, shall be allowed hundred per cent. deduction of such profits and gains for five assessment years beginning with the initial assessment year and thereafter, twenty-five per cent. (or thirty per cent. where the assessee is a company) of the profits and gains derived from the operation of such business in a manner that the total period of deduction does not exceed ten consecutive assessment years and subject to fulfillment of the condition that it begins to operate such business on or after 1st April, 2001.

Sub-clause (c) seeks to insert a new sub-clause (iv) in clause (c) of sub-section (14) to define the "initial assessment year" in relation to the integrated business of handling, storage and transportation of foodgrains.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 42 seeks to amend section 80L of the Income-tax Act relating to deductions in respect of interest on certain securities, dividends, etc.

It is proposed to reduce the deduction allowed to an assessee in computing his total income from twelve thousand rupees to nine thousand rupees. It is also proposed to omit the proviso below clause (x) which allows additional deduction of three thousand rupees received as interest on Government securities.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 43 seeks to amend section 88 of the Income-tax Act, relating to rebate on life insurance premia, contribution to provident fund, etc.

Under the existing provision of section 88 of the Income-tax Act, a person is allowed tax rebate of twenty per cent. on the investments made by him in a specified security up to the specified limit. Proviso to sub-section (1) of section 88 gives the benefit of higher rebate of twenty-five per cent. in the case of sportsman, play-wright, author, etc.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to provide that in the case of an individual having income chargeable under the head "Salaries" which does not exceed one lakh rupees before allowing deduction under section 16 and which is not less than ninety per cent. of his gross total income, the rate of rebate under section 88 shall be thirty per cent. instead of twenty per cent.

The existing provision contained in clause (xiii) of sub-section (2) provides for tax rebate in respect of any sum paid or deposited to effect or to keep in force a contract for such annuity plan of the Life Insurance Corporation of India as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to provide that the annuity plan of any other insurer approved by the Insurance Regulatory and Development Authority shall also be eligible for tax rebate.

These amendments will take effect from the 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 44 seeks to substitute section 92 of the Income-tax Act, relating to income from transactions with non-residents, how computed in certain cases.

It is proposed to substitute the said section by new sections 92, 92A, 92B, 92C, 92D, 92E and 92F relating to computation of income from international transactions having regard to the arm's length price, meaning of associated enterprise, meaning of international transaction, computation of arm's length price, maintenance of information and documents by persons entering into international transactions, furnishing of a report from an accountant by persons entering into international transaction and definitions of certain expressions occurring in the new sections.

It is proposed to substitute section 92 by a new section to provide that any income arising from an international transaction shall be computed having regard to arm's length price. It further provides that the cost or expenses allocated or apportioned between two or more associated enterprises shall be at arm's length price.

The proposed new sections 92A and 92B provide meanings of the expressions "associated enterprise" and "international transaction" with reference to which the income is to be computed under the new section 92.

The proposed new section 92C provides for computation of arm's length price. The section provides that the arm's length price in relation to an international transaction shall be determined by (a) comparable uncontrolled price method; or (b) resale price method; or (c) cost plus method; or (d) profit split method; or (e) transactional net margin method; or (f) any other method which may be prescribed by the Central Board of Direct Taxes. One of these methods shall be the most appropriate method which shall be applied for computation of arm's length price in the manner as may be specified by the rules to be made by the Central Board of Direct Taxes in this behalf. In a case where more than one price can be determined by the most appropriate method, in such case the arm's length price shall be the arithmetical mean of such two or more prices. The new section further provides that where during the course of any proceeding for the assessment of income the Assessing Officer is, on the basis of material or information or document in his possession, of the opinion that the price charged in the international transaction has not been determined in accordance with sub-sections (1) and (2) or information and documents relating to the international transaction have not been kept and maintained by the assessee in accordance with the provisions contained in sub-section (1) of section 92D, and the rules made in this behalf or the information or data used in computation of the arm's length price is not reliable or correct or the assessee has failed to furnish, within the specified time, any information or document which he was required to furnish by a notice issued under sub-section (3) of section 92D, the Assessing Officer may proceed to determine, after giving an opportunity of being heard to the assessee, the arm's length price in relation to the said transaction in accordance with sub-sections (1) and (2) of this section, on the basis of such material or information or documents available with him.

The new section 92D seeks to provide that every person who has entered into an international transaction shall keep and maintain such information and documents as may be specified by rules made by the Central Board of Direct Taxes. The Central Board of Direct Taxes may also specify by the rules the period for which the information and documents are required to be retained. During the course of any proceedings under the Act, an Assessing Officer or Commissioner (Appeals) may require any person who has entered into an international transaction to furnish any of the information and documents specified under the rules within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of a notice issued in this regard, and such period may be extended by a further period not exceeding thirty days.

The new section 92E seeks to provide that every person who has entered into an international transaction during a previous year shall obtain a report of an accountant and furnish such report on or before the specified date in the prescribed form and manner.

The new section 92F defines the expressions "accountant", "arm's length price", "enterprise", "specified date" and "transaction" used in the proposed new sections 92, 92A, 92B, 92C, 92D and 92E.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 45 seeks to amend section 94 of the Income-tax Act, relating to avoidance of tax by certain transactions in securities.

Under the existing provision contained in the said section, transactions of sale and purchase of securities which result in the interest or dividend in respect of such securities being received by a person not being the owner of the securities, are to be ignored and the interest or dividend from such securities is required to be included in the total income of the owner.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to insert a new sub-section (7) in the said section so as to provide that where any person buys or acquires securities or unit within a period of three months prior to the record date fixed for declaration of dividend or distribution of income in respect of the securities or unit, and sells or transfers the same within a period of three months after such record date, and the dividend or income received or receivable is exempt, then, the loss, if any, arising from such purchase or sale shall be ignored to the extent such loss does not exceed the amount of such dividend or interest, in the computation of the income, chargeable to tax, of such person.

Sub-Clause (b) seeks to insert new expressions "record date" and "unit" as clauses (aa) and (d) in the Explanation.

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 46 seeks to amend section 115AB of the Income-tax Act relating to tax on income from units purchased in foreign currency or capital gains arising from their transfer.

Explanation (a) to section 115AB defines "overseas financial organisation" to mean any fund, institution, association or body, whether incorporated or not, established under the laws of a country outside India, which has entered into an arrangement for investment in India with any public sector bank or public financial institution or a mutual fund specified under clause (23D) of section 10 and such arrangement is approved by the Central Government for this purpose.

It is proposed to amend the said Explanation to provide that the Securities and Exchange Board of India shall be the authority to grant approval in respect of the above-mentioned arrangement instead of the Central Government.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 47 seeks to substitute section 115AC of the Income-tax Act relating to tax on income from bonds or Global Depository Receipts purchased in foreign currency or capital gains arising from their transfer.

Sub-section (1) of the proposed new section seeks to provide that in the case of an assessee who is a non-resident assessee, the income-tax payable shall be the aggregate of—

(i) ten per cent. of the income by way of interest in respect of bonds of an Indian company issued in accordance with such scheme as the Central Government may, by notification in the Official Gazette, specify in this behalf, and on bonds of public sector company sold by the Government and purchased by him in foreign currency, if any;

(ii) ten per cent. of the income by way of dividends (other than dividends referred to in section 115-O) in respect of Global Depository Receipts of an Indian company—

(a) issued in accordance with a scheme notified by the Central Government in the Official Gazette against the initial issue of underlying shares of an Indian company and purchased by the non-resident in foreign exchange through an approved intermediary; or

(b) issued against the shares of a public sector company sold by the Government through an approved intermediary; or

(c) re-issued against the existing underlying shares of an Indian company in accordance with such scheme as the Central Government may notify in the Official Gazette, and purchased by the non-resident in foreign exchange through an approved intermediary; or

(d) issued against the shares of a listed Indian company on the disinvestments by such company of its shareholding in its listed subsidiary company, in accordance with such scheme as the Central Government may notify in the Official Gazette, and purchased by the non-resident in foreign exchange through an approved intermediary,

(iii) ten per cent. in case of long-term capital gains arising from the transfer of the aforesaid bonds and Global Depository Receipts, if any, and

(iv) the amount of income-tax on the total income as reduced by the income from the said bonds and Global Depository Receipts.

Sub-section (2) of the proposed new section seeks to provide that in the case of the aforesaid non-resident assessee, no deduction shall be allowed under any provisions of this Act, where the gross total income consists only of income from aforesaid bonds or Global Depository Receipts. However, where the gross total income includes income from aforesaid bonds or Global Depository Receipts, the deduction under any provisions of the Act shall be allowed as if the gross total income does not include the income from the aforesaid bonds or Global Depository Receipts.

Sub-section (3) of the proposed new section provides that the first and second provisos of section 48 relating to the computation of capital gains shall not apply in case of transfer of aforesaid bonds and Global Depository Receipts of the Indian company purchased by the non-resident assessee in foreign currency.

Sub-section (4) of the proposed new section provides that a non-resident shall not be required to furnish his return of income under section 139(1) if his total income consists only of income referred to in clauses (a), (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) and tax has been deducted at source as per the provisions of Chapter XVII-B from such income.

Sub-section (5) of the proposed new section provides that where an assessee acquires bonds or Global Depository Receipts, as the case may be, in a resulting or amalgamated company by virtue of his holding Global Depository Receipts or bonds in the amalgamating or demerged company in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (1), the provisions of the said sub-section shall apply to such bonds or Global Depository Receipts.

The Explanation to the new section defines the expressions "approved intermediary" and "Global Depository Receipts".

These amendments will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 48 seeks to amend section 115ACA of the Income-tax Act relating to tax on income from Global Depository Receipts purchased in foreign currency or capital gains arising from their transfer.

Under the existing provision contained in section 115ACA, in the case of an assessee who is a resident and employee of an Indian company engaged in information technology software and information technology services, income by way of interest or dividend (other than dividends referred to in section 115-O) and long-term capital gains arising from bonds or shares of an Indian company issued in accordance with an Employees' Stock Option Scheme as the Central Government may specify by notification in the Official Gazette, and purchased by the resident individual employee in foreign exchange is taxed at ten per cent.

It is proposed to amend section 115ACA so as to extend the concessional tax rate on income by way of interest or dividend (other than dividends referred to in section 115-O) and long-term capital gains to employee of a subsidiary company, whether domestic or foreign, of an Indian company engaged in specified knowledge-based industry or service on shares issued by such an Indian company in accordance with notified stock option scheme and purchased by the resident individual employee in foreign currency.

It is also proposed to define the term "specified knowledge-based industry or service" so as to include within its ambit, entertainment service, pharmaceuticals, bio-technology, and any other industry or service as may be notified by the Central Government in addition to the existing sectors information technology software and information technology services.

It is also proposed to define the term "subsidiary" used in the proposed new section.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Clause 49 seeks to amend section 115BB of the Income-tax Act relating to tax on winnings from lotteries, crossword puzzles, races including horse races, card games and other games of any sort or gambling or betting of any form or nature whatsoever.

Under the existing provisions, any income by way of winnings from any lottery or crossword puzzle or race including horse race (not being income from the activity of owning and maintaining race horses) or card game and other game of any sort or from gambling or betting of any form or nature whatsoever, is chargeable to tax at the rate of forty per cent. under clause (i) of section 115BB.

It is proposed to amend the said clause so as to provide that such winnings shall be taxed at the rate of thirty per cent. as against the existing rate of forty per cent.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 50 seeks to amend section 115-O of the Income-tax Act relating to tax on distributed profits of domestic companies.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1) of the said section, any amount declared, distributed or paid by way of dividends (whether interim or otherwise) by a domestic company shall be charged to additional income-tax at a flat rate of twenty per cent. in addition to the normal income-tax chargeable in respect of the total income of the company.

It is proposed to reduce the said rate of additional income-tax from twenty per cent. to ten per cent.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 51 seeks to amend section 115P of the Income-tax Act relating to interest payable for non-payment of tax by domestic companies.

Under the existing provision, the principal officer of a domestic company and the company are liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. for every month or part thereof if he or it fails to pay the whole or any part of the tax on distributed profits in accordance with the provisions contained in section 115-O.

The proposed amendment seeks to reduce the rate of interest from one and one-half per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part thereof, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 52 seeks to amend section 115R of the Income-tax Act relating to tax on distributed income to unit holders.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-sections (1) and (2) of the said section, any amount of income distributed by the Unit Trust of India or a Mutual Fund to its unit holders shall be chargeable to income-tax at a flat rate of twenty per cent. to be payable by the Unit Trust of India or a Mutual Fund, as the case may be.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-sections (1) and (2) of the aforesaid section so as to reduce the said rate of income-tax from the existing twenty per cent. to ten per cent.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 53 seeks to amend section 115S of the Income-tax Act relating to interest payable for non-payment of tax.

Under the existing provision, the person responsible for making payment of the income distributed by the Unit Trust of India or a Mutual Fund and the Unit Trust of India or the Mutual Fund, as the case may be, is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. for every month or part thereof if he or it fails to pay the tax in accordance with the provision contained in section 115R.

The proposed amendment seeks to reduce the rate of interest from one and one-half per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part thereof, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 54 seeks to amend section 139 of the Income-tax Act relating to return of income.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), every person, if his total income or the total income of any other person in respect of which he is assessable under this Act during the previous year exceeded the maximum amount which is not chargeable to income tax, is required to file a return of such income on or before the due date in the prescribed form and manner.

It is proposed to provide that every person, being a company, shall file a return of its income on or before the due date whether or not its total income during the previous year is chargeable to income-tax.

Under the existing provision contained in the first proviso to sub-section (1), a person not furnishing a return under the said sub-section and residing in such area as may be specified by the Central Board of Direct Taxes and who at any time during the previous year fulfils any one of the six conditions specified in that proviso, is also required to furnish a return of his income during the previous year, on or before the due date in the prescribed form and manner.

It is proposed to retain the criteria mentioned in the first proviso to sub-section (1).

Under the existing provision contained in Explanation 1 to sub-section (1), the due date is specified to be the 30th November of the assessment year in the case of the assessee being a company, and where the assessee is a person other than a company, the due date is specified to be (a) the 31st October of the assessment year in a case where accounts of the assessee are required to be audited or where a report of an accountant is required to be furnished; (b) the 31st August of the assessment year in a case where the total income includes income from business or profession, not being a case falling under (a) above; and (c) the 30th June of the assessment year in any other case.

It is proposed to revise the due dates for filing returns by different classes of assessees and to provide that in the case of a company, the 31st October of the assessment year shall be the due date for filing the return. In the case of a person other than a company, referred to in the first proviso to sub-section (1), the 31st October of the assessment year shall be the due date for filing the return. In the case of any other assessee, the 31st July of the assessment year shall be the due date for filing the return.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 2001 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2001-2002 and subsequent years.

Clause 55 seeks to amend section 139A of the Income-tax Act relating to permanent account number .

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (5), every person shall quote his permanent account number in all his returns to, or correspondence with, any income-tax authority, in all challans for the payment of any sum due under this Act and in all documents pertaining to such transactions entered into by him as may be prescribed by the Central Board of Direct Taxes in the interests of the revenue.

It is proposed to insert a new sub-section (5A) so as to provide that every person receiving any sum or income or amount from which tax has been deducted under the provisions of Chapter XVIIB shall intimate his permanent account number to the person responsible for deducting such tax under that Chapter. This requirement shall not apply to a non-resident referred to in section 115AC or section 115BBA and to a non-resident Indian referred to in section 115G, for whom it is not necessary to furnish a return under sub-section (1) of section 139.

It is also proposed to insert a new sub-section (5B) so as to provide that where any sum or income or amount has been paid after deducting tax under Chapter XVIIB, every person deducting tax under that Chapter shall quote the permanent account number of the person, to whom such sum or income or amount has been paid by him, in a statement furnished in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (2C) of section 192, in all certificates furnished in accordance with the provision of section 203, and in all returns prepared and delivered or caused to be delivered in accordance with the provision of section 206.

It is proposed to insert two provisos to provide that the Central Government, however, may have the power to notify separately the dates from which these provisions shall apply in respect of any class or classes of persons and that the proposed sub-sections (5A) and (5B) shall not apply in case of a person whose total income is not chargeable to income-tax or who is not required to obtain permanent account number under any provision of this Act if such person furnishes to the person responsible for deducting tax a declaration referred to in section 197A in the form and manner prescribed thereunder to the effect that the tax on his estimated total income of the previous year to which such income relates will be nil.

It is also proposed to insert a new sub-section (5C) so as to provide that every buyer referred to in section 206C shall intimate his permanent account number to the seller referred to in that section.

It is also proposed to insert a new sub-section (5D) so as to provide that every seller collecting tax in accordance with the provisions of section 206C shall quote the permanent account number of every buyer, referred to in that section, in all certificates furnished in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (5) of section 206C and in all returns prepared and delivered or caused to be delivered in accordance with the provision of sub-section (5A) or sub-section (5B) of section 206C to an income-tax authority.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 56 seeks to amend section 140A of the Income-tax Act relating to self-assessment.

It is proposed to insert new sub-section (1A) in the said section to provide that interest payable under section 234A shall be computed on the amount of tax on the total income as declared in the return as reduced by the advance tax, if any, paid and any tax deducted or collected at source.

It is further proposed to insert new sub-section (1B) in the said section to provide that interest payable under section 234B shall be computed on the assessed tax or, as the case may be, on the amount by which the advance tax paid falls short of the assessed tax.

It is also proposed to insert an Explanation to new sub-section (1B) so as to clarify that for the purposes of computing the interest payable under section 234B as required under section 140A, "assessed tax" shall mean tax on the total income as declared in the return as reduced by the amount of tax deducted or collected at source, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter XVII, on any income which is subject to such deduction or collection and which is taken into account in computing such total income.

These amendments will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 1989 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 1989-1990 and subsequent years.

Clause 57 seeks to amend section 143 of the Income-tax Act relating to assessment.

Sub-section (1) of the said section, inter alia, provides that an intimation shall be sent to the assessee in cases where any tax or interest is found to be payable by him, or a refund is due to him, on the basis of the return filed by him. However, under the existing provision contained in the second proviso to sub-section (1), no such intimation shall be sent after the expiry of two years from the end of the assessment year in which the income was first assessable.

It is proposed to amend the second proviso to sub-section (1) to provide that no such intimation shall be sent after the expiry of one year from the end of the financial year in which the return of income is made. The time-limit of two years, however, will continue to apply in respect of returns already furnished for the assessment year 1999-2000.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 58 seeks to amend section 149 of the Income-tax Act relating to time-limit for issue of notice under section 148.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), a notice under section 148 can be issued within a period of four, seven or ten years from the end of the relevant assessment year. An assessment which has already been completed may be reopened by issue of notice under the said sub-section up to the period of four years from the end of relevant assessment year. For any period beyond four years but up to seven years, such notice may be issued when the amount of escaped income is not less than rupees fifty thousand but does not exceed rupees one lakh. Where the amount of escaped income is likely to be rupees one lakh or more, a notice may be issued up to ten years from the end of the relevant assessment year.

It is proposed to amend sub-section (1) to provide that the notice under section 148 can be issued only within four years from the end of the relevant assessment year or within six years from the end of the relevant assessment year in cases where the amount of income chargeable to tax which has escaped assessment amounts to or is likely to amount to rupees one lakh or more for that year.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 59 seeks to amend section 153 of the Income-tax Act relating to time-limit for completion of assessments and reassessments.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (2), no order of assessment or reassessment or recomputation shall be made under section 147 after the expiry of two years from the end of the financial year in which the notice under section 148 was served. Further, sub-section (2A) provides that an order of fresh assessment under section 146, or in pursuance of an order, under section 250, section 254, section 263 or section 264, setting aside or cancelling an assessment, may be made at any time before the expiry of two years from the end of the financial year in which the order under section 146 cancelling the assessment is passed by the Assessing Officer or the order under section 250 or section 254 is received by the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner or, as the case may be, the order under section 263 or section 264 is passed by the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner.

It is proposed to amend sub-section (2) to provide that no order of assessment or reassessment or recomputation shall be made under section 147 after the expiry of one year from the end of the financial year in which the notice under section 148 was served. However, where the notice under section 148 has been served on or after 1st April, 1999 but before 1st April, 2000, such assessment, reassessment or recomputation may be made at any time up to 31st March, 2002.

It is further proposed to substitute sub-section (2A) to provide that an order of fresh assessment in pursuance of an order under section 250, section 254, section 263 or section 264, setting aside or cancelling an assessment, may be made at any time before the expiry of one year from the end of the financial year in which the order under section 250 or section 254 is received by the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner or, as the case may be, the order under section 263 or section 264 is passed by the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner. However, where any such order has been received or has been passed, as the case may be, on or after the 1st April, 1999 but before the 1st April, 2000, an order of fresh assessment may be made at any time up to the 31st March, 2002.

It is also proposed to omit clause (i) of sub-section (3), which is of consequential nature.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 60 seeks to amend section 154 of the Income-tax Act relating to rectification of a mistake.

Under the existing provision, no amendment of any order passed by the income-tax authority or any intimation under sub-section (1) of section 143 can be made after the expiry of four years from the end of the financial year in which the order sought to be amended was passed.

It is proposed to insert a new sub-section (8) to provide that where an application for amendment under this section is made by the assessee on or after 1st June, 2001 to an income-tax authority referred to in sub-section (1), the authority shall pass an order within six months from the end of the month in which the application is received by it, either making the amendment or refusing to allow the claim.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 61 seeks to amend section 158B of the Income-tax Act relating to definitions.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (a) of the said section, the expression "block period" means the previous years relevant to ten assessment years preceding the previous year in which the search was conducted under section 132 or any requisition was made under section 132A, and includes, in the previous year in which such search was conducted or requisition was made, the period up to the date of commencement of such search or, as the case may be, the date of such requisition.

It is proposed to substitute the said clause (a) so as to provide that the expression "block period" shall mean the previous years relevant to six assessment years preceding the previous year in which the search was conducted or any requisition was made. In cases where search was conducted or requisition was made before the 1st June, 2001, the block period would continue to be previous years relevant to ten assessment years as per the existing provisions.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 62 seeks to amend section 158BFA of the Income-tax Act relating to levy of interest and penalty in certain cases.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1) of the said section, the assessee is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of two per cent. for every month or part of a month on the tax on undisclosed income determined under clause (c) of section 158BC for defaults in furnishing the return of total income including undisclosed income for the block period.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section so as to reduce the rate of interest from two per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part thereof, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 63 seeks to insert a new sub-section (2C) in section 192 of the Income-tax Act relating to salary .

The proposed amendment seeks to provide that any person responsible for paying salary shall furnish to the person who receives salary a statement giving particulars of perquisites or profits in lieu of salary provided to him in the prescribed form.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 64 seeks to amend section 194A of the Income-tax Act relating to deduction of income-tax at source from interest other than interest on securities.

The existing clause (i) of sub-section (3) of the said section provides that the deduction of income-tax at source under sub-section (1) shall not be made in cases where the amount of income by way of interest does not exceed five thousand rupees. The proviso below the said clause provides that in the cases of time deposits with a banking company or with a co-operative society engaged in carrying on the business of banking or deposit with a housing finance company, the said limit for deduction of income-tax shall be ten thousand rupees.

The proposed amendment seeks to provide that the limit for tax deduction at source for the purpose of the aforesaid section shall be two thousand five hundred rupees.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 65 seeks to amend section 194B of the Income-tax Act relating to winnings from lottery or crossword puzzle.

Under the existing provision, the person responsible for paying to any person any income by way of winnings from any lottery or crossword puzzle in an amount exceeding five thousand rupees shall, at the time of payment thereof, deduct income-tax thereon at the rates in force.

It is proposed to provide for deduction of income-tax at source at the rates in force also on winnings from card game and other game of any sort.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 66 seeks to insert a new section 194H of the Income-tax Act relating to commission or brokerage.

Under the proposed new section 194H, the person responsible for paying any income by way of commission or brokerage for services rendered (not being professional services) or for any services in the course of buying or selling of goods or in relation to any transaction relating to any asset, valuable article or thing (not being securities), shall deduct income-tax thereon at the rate of ten per cent. However, no such deduction shall be made where the amount of payment or the aggregate amount of payments, in a financial year, does not exceed two thousand five hundred rupees. The new section will not apply when payments are made by individuals or Hindu undivided families. The expressions "commission or brokerage", "professional services" and "securities" are being defined in the Explanation to the proposed section.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 67 seeks to amend section 196C of the Income-tax Act relating to income from foreign currency bonds or shares of Indian company.

Under the existing provisions contained in section 196C, the person responsible for making any payment to a non-resident by way of interest or dividend in respect of bonds or shares referred to in section 115AC or by way of long-term capital gains arising from transfer of such bonds or shares, is required to deduct tax at the rate of ten per cent.

It is proposed to substitute section 115AC vide clause 47 of the Bill. As a consequence, it is proposed to substitute the word "shares" occurring at both the places in section 196C, with the words "Global Depository Receipts".

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 68 seeks to amend section 201 of the Income-tax Act relating to consequences of failure to deduct or pay the tax.

Under the existing provisions contained in sub-section (1) of the said section, the person, the principal officer and the company, referred to in that sub-section, is deemed to be an assessee in default if he does not deduct or after deducting fails to pay the tax as required by or under the Act. Sub-section (1A) of that section provides that such person or such principal officer or such company shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of eighteen per cent. per annum on the amount of such tax from the date on which such tax was deductible to the date on which such tax is actually paid.

It is proposed to clarify that provisions of sub-sections (1) and (1A) shall apply whether such person or such principal officer or such company fails to deduct the whole or any part of the tax.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 1962 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 1962-63 and subsequent years.

It is further proposed to reduce the said rate of interest from eighteen per cent. to fifteen per cent. per annum in sub-section (1A).

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 69 seeks to amend section 206C of the Income-tax Act relating to profits and gains from the business of trading in alcoholic liquor, forest produce, scrap, etc.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (7) of the said section, if the seller does not collect the tax or after collecting the tax fails to pay it as required under the said section, he shall be liable to pay simple interest at the rate of two per cent. per month or part thereof on the amount of such tax.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section (7) so as to reduce the rate of interest from two per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. per month or part thereof, on the amount of tax payable by the seller under that sub-section.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 70 seeks to amend section 220 of the Income-tax Act as to when the tax is payable and when an assessee is deemed to be in default.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (2) of the said section, if the amount specified in any notice of demand under section 156 is not paid within thirty days of the service of the notice, the assessee is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. for every month or part of a month comprising the periods specified in that section.

The proposed amendment seeks to reduce the rate of interest from one and one-half per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part thereof.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 71 seeks to omit section 230A of the Income-tax Act relating to restrictions on registration of transfers of immovable property in certain cases.

Under the existing provision of the said section, any document purporting to transfer, assign, limit or extinguish the right, title or interest of any person to or in any property valued at more than five lakh rupees shall not be registered under the Registration Act, 1908, unless the Assessing Officer certifies that such person has either paid or made satisfactory provision for payment of all existing tax liabilities or that the registration of the document will not prejudicially affect the recovery of any existing tax liability.

With a view to simplifying the procedures, it is proposed to omit the said section.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 72 seeks to amend section 234A of the Income-tax Act relating to payment of interest for defaults in furnishing return of income.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-sections (1) and (3) of section 234A, the assessee is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. for every month or part of a month for default in furnishing the return of income for the period specified in the said section.

It is proposed to amend sub-sections (1) and (3) of the said section to reduce the rate of interest from one and one-half per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part thereof, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

It is further proposed to omit Explanation 4 to sub-section (1) of the said section which is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 1989 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 1989-1990 and subsequent years.

Clause 73 seeks to amend section 234B of the Income-tax Act relating to interest for defaults in payment of advance tax.

Under the existing provision, the assessee is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. for every month or part of a month for default in payment of advance tax for the period specified in the said section.

It is proposed to reduce the rate of interest from one and one-half per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part thereof, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

It is further proposed to substitute Explanation 1 to sub-section (1) of the said section, which is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect retrospectively from 1st April, 1989 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 1989-90 and subsequent years.

Clause 74 seeks to amend section 234C of the Income-tax Act relating to payment of interest for deferment of advance tax.

Under the existing provision, the assessee is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. for every month or part of a month for deferment of advance tax on the amount of the shortfall specified in the said section.

The proposed amendment seeks to reduce the rate of interest from one and one-half per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part thereof, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 75 seeks to omit section 241 of the Income-tax Act relating to power to withhold refund in certain cases.

Under the existing provision, the Assessing Officer may, with the previous approval of the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner, withhold the refund of any amount due to the assessee till such time as the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner determines, under the circumstances specified in the said section if the grant of refund is likely to adversely affect the revenue.

It is proposed to omit the said section to withdraw the powers conferred upon the Assessing Officer to withhold the refund.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 76 seeks to amend section 244A of the Income-tax Act relating to interest on refunds.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), where refund of any amount becomes due to the assessee under the Income-tax Act, the assessee is entitled to receive, in addition to the said amount, simple interest thereon at the rate of one per cent. for every month or part of a month comprised in the period of delay specified in the said section.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section so as to reduce the rate of interest from one per cent. to three-fourth per cent. for every month or part of a month, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 77 seeks to amend section 251 of the Income-tax Act relating to powers of the Commissioner (Appeals).

Under the existing provisions contained in sub-section (1), where an appeal is filed before the Commissioner (Appeals), against an order of assessment, the Commissioner (Appeals) may confirm, reduce, enhance or annul the assessment; or he may set aside the assessment and refer the case back to the Assessing Officer for making a fresh assessment in accordance with the directions given by him and after making such further enquiry as may be necessary.

With a view to help bringing an early finalisation to the assessment and to avoid prolonging the process of litigation, it is proposed to amend clause (a) of the aforesaid section so as to provide that, where an appeal is filed before the Commissioner (Appeals), against an order of assessment, the Commissioner (Appeals) may not set aside the assessment or refer the case back to the Assessing Officer for making fresh assessment.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 78 seeks to amend section 254 of the Income-tax Act relating to orders of the Appellate Tribunal.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (2A) of the said section, the Appellate Tribunal, where it is possible, may hear and decide an appeal filed by the assessee under sub-section (1) of section 253 within a period of four years from the end of the financial year in which such appeal is filed.

It is proposed to provide that where, in an appeal filed by the assessee, the Appellate Tribunal passes an order granting stay, the Tribunal shall hear and decide such appeal within a period of one hundred and eighty days from the date of passing such order granting stay, failing which the stay granted shall stand vacated on the expiry of the aforesaid period.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 79 seeks to amend section 264 of the Income-tax Act relating to revision of other orders.

Under the existing provision contained in the said section, the Commissioner may, either of his own motion or on an application by the assessee for revision, revise any order passed by an authority subordinate to him. Sub-section (5) of the said section provides that every application by an assessee for revision under this section shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty-five rupees.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section to enhance the fee from twenty-five rupees to five hundred rupees.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 80 seeks to amend section 271 of the Income-tax Act relating to failure to furnish returns, comply with notices, concealment of income, etc.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), if the Assessing Officer or the Commissioner (Appeals), in the course of any proceedings under the Income-tax Act, is satisfied that any person has failed to comply with a notice under sub-section (1) of section 142 or sub-section (2) of section 143 or fails to comply with a direction issued under sub-section (2A) of section 142 of the said Act, he may direct that such person shall pay by way of penalty, in addition to any tax payable by him, a sum which shall not be less than one thousand rupees but which may extend to twenty-five thousand rupees for each such failure.

It is proposed to amend clause (ii) of sub-section (1) so as to provide for a fixed amount of penalty of ten thousand rupees for each such failure.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 44 of the Bill proposes to substitute section 92 by a new section 92 and insert new sections 92A, 92B, 92C, 92D, 92E and 92F relating to computation of income arising from an international transaction.

It is proposed to insert a new Explanation 7 to sub-section (1) of section 271 to provide that where in the case of an assessee who has entered into an international transaction defined in section 92B, any amount is added or disallowed in computing the total income under sub-section (4) of section 92C, then, the amount so added or disallowed shall be deemed to represent income in respect of which particulars have been concealed or inaccurate particulars have been furnished. However, the provisions of this Explanation shall not apply where the assessee proves to the satisfaction of the Assessing Officer or the Commissioner (Appeals) that the price charged or paid in such transaction has been determined in accordance with section 92C in good faith and with due diligence.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 81 seeks to amend section 271A of the Income-tax Act relating to failure to keep, maintain or retain books of account, documents, etc.

Under the existing provision, if any person fails to keep and maintain in respect of any previous year such books of account and other documents as required by section 44AA or the rules made thereunder or to retain such books of account and other documents for the period specified in the said rules, the Assessing Officer or the Commissioner (Appeals) may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum which shall not be less than two thousand rupees but which may extend to one hundred thousand rupees.

It is proposed to provide for the levy of a fixed amount of penalty of twenty-five thousand rupees instead of a penalty of a sum which shall not be less than two thousand rupees but may extend to one hundred thousand rupees.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 82 seeks to insert a new section 271AA in the Income-tax Act relating to penalty for failure to keep and maintain information and documents, in respect of each international transaction.

The new section seeks to provide that if any person who has entered into an international transaction as defined in section 92B fails to keep and maintain any such information and documents as required by sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) of section 92D, the Assessing Officer or Commissioner (Appeals) may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to two per cent. of the value of the international transaction entered into by such person.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 83 seeks to insert a new section 271BA in the Income-tax Act relating to penalty for failure to furnish a report from an accountant under section 92E.

The new section seeks to provide that if any person fails to furnish a report from an accountant as required by section 92E, the Assessing Officer may direct that such person shall pay by way of penalty, a sum of one hundred thousand rupees.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 84 seeks to amend section 271F of the Income-tax Act relating to penalty for failure to furnish return of income.

Under the existing provision, if a person who is required to furnish a return of his income, as required under sub-section (1) of section 139, fails to furnish such return before the end of the relevant assessment year, he shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum of one thousand rupees.

Further, if a person who is required to furnish a return of his income, as required by the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 139, fails to furnish such return on or before the due date, he shall be liable to pay, by way of penalty, a sum of five hundred rupees.

It is proposed to enhance the said penalties from one thousand rupees to five thousand rupees and from five hundred rupees to five thousand rupees, respectively.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 85 seeks to insert a new section 271G in the Income-tax Act relating to penalty for failure to furnish certain information or document, under section 92D.

The new section seeks to provide that if any person who has entered into an international transaction fails to furnish any such information or document under sub-section (3) of section 92D, the Assessing Officer or the Commissioner (Appeals) may direct that such person shall pay, by way of penalty, a sum equal to two per cent. of the value of the international transaction, for each such failure.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 86 seeks to amend section 272A of the Income-tax Act relating to penalty for failure to answer questions, sign statements, furnish information, returns or statements, allow inspections, etc.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), if a person fails to comply with any of the requirements specified therein, he is liable to pay by way of penalty a sum which shall not be less than five hundred rupees but which may extend to ten thousand rupees for each such default or failure.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section (1) so as to provide for a fixed amount of penalty of ten thousand rupees for each such default or failure.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

It is further proposed to insert a new clause (i) in sub-section (2) so as to provide penalty for failure to furnish a statement giving correct and complete particulars of perquisites or profits in lieu of salary provided to an employee.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002.

Clause 87 seeks to amend section 272BB of the Income-tax Act relating to penalty for failure to comply with the provisions of section 203A.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1), if a person fails to comply with the provision of section 203A, he shall, on an order passed by the Assessing Officer, pay, by way of penalty, a sum which may extend to five thousand rupees.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section to enhance the penalty and to provide for levy of a fixed amount of penalty of a sum of ten thousand rupees.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 88 seeks to amend section 273B of the Income-tax Act relating to penalty not to be imposed in certain cases.

The existing provision of the said section provides that no penalty shall be imposable on the person or the assessee, as the case may be, for any failure referred to in certain sections specified in the said section, if he proves that there was reasonable cause for such failure.

Clauses 82, 83 and 85 of the Bill seek to insert section 271AA, section 271BA and section 271G in the Income-tax Act, relating to penalties for failure, on the part of a person who has entered into an international transaction defined in the proposed new section 92B, to keep and maintain such information and document as may be prescribed, or to furnish a report from an accountant, or to furnish information or documents required by the Assessing Officer.

It is proposed to amend section 273B to provide that no penalty shall be imposable on the person or the assessee, as the case may be, for any failure referred to in sections 271AA, 271BA and section 271G, if he proves that there was reasonable cause for such failure. The proposed amendment is of consequential nature.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 89 seeks to amend rule 68A of the Second Schedule to the Income-tax Act relating to acceptance of property in satisfaction of amount due from the defaulter.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-rule (3) of the said rule, where the price of the property agreed upon between the Assessing Officer and the defaulter under sub-rule (1) exceeds the amount due from the defaulter, such excess shall be paid by the Assessing Officer to the defaulter within a period of three months from the date of delivery of possession of the property to the Assessing Officer and where the Assessing Officer fails to pay such excess within the period aforesaid, the Central Government is required to pay simple interest at the rate of twelve per cent. per annum to the defaulter on such amount for the period of delay.

It is proposed to amend sub-rule (3) so as to reduce the rate of interest which is payable by the Central Government under that sub-rule from twelve per cent. to nine per cent. per annum.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Wealth-tax

Clause 90 seeks to amend section 17 of the Wealth-tax Act relating to wealth escaping assessment.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (1A), a notice under sub-section (1) of the said section may be issued within a period of four, seven or ten years from the end of the relevant assessment year. An assessment which has already been completed may be re-opened by issue of notice under sub-section (1) up to the period of four years from the end of relevant assessment year. For any period beyond four years but up to seven years, such notice may be issued when the amount of escaped net wealth is not less than five lakh rupees but does not exceed ten lakh rupees. Where, the amount of escaped net wealth is likely to be ten lakh rupees or more, a notice may be issued up to ten years from the end of the relevant assessment year.

It is proposed to amend the said sub-section (1A) to provide that the notice under sub-section (1) of the said section may be issued only within four years from the end of relevant assessment year, or within six years from the end of the relevant assessment year in cases where the amount of net wealth chargeable to tax which has escaped assessment amounts to or is likely to amount to ten lakh rupees or more for that year.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 91 seeks to amend section 17A of the Wealth-tax Act relating to time-limit for completion of assessment and re-assessment.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (2), no order of assessment or re-assessment shall be made under section 17 after the expiry of two years from the end of the financial year in which the notice under sub-section (1) of that section was served. Further, sub-section (3) provides that an order of fresh assessment in pursuance of an order passed on or after the 1st day of April, 1975, under section 23 or section 24 or section 25, setting aside or cancelling an assessment, may be made at any time before the expiry of two years from the end of the financial year in which the order under section 23 or section 24 is received by the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner or, as the case may be, the order under section 25 is passed by the Commissioner.

It is proposed to amend sub-section (2) to provide that no order of assessment or re-assessment shall be made under section 17 after the expiry of one year from the end of the financial year in which the notice under sub-section (1) of that section was served. However, where the notice under the said sub-section (1) has been served on or after 1st April, 1999 but before 1st April, 2000, such assessment or re-assessment may be made at any time up to 31st March, 2002.

It is further proposed to omit the Explanation in the said sub-section, which is of consequential nature.

It is also proposed to amend sub-section (3) to substitute references to section 23 with references to section 23A, and to provide that an order of fresh assessment in pursuance of an order under section 23A or section 24 or section 25, setting aside or cancelling an assessment, may be made at any time before the expiry of one year from the end of the financial year in which the order under section 23A or section 24 is received by the Chief Commissioner or Commissioner or, as the case may be, the order under section 25 is passed by the Commissioner. However, where any such order has been received or has been passed, as the case may be, on or after 1st April, 1999 but before 1st April, 2000, an order of fresh assessment may be made at any time up to 31st March, 2002.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 92 seeks to amend section 17B of the Wealth-tax Act relating to payment of interest for defaults in furnishing return of net wealth.

Under the existing provision contained in section 17B, the assessee is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of two per cent. for every month or part of a month for default in furnishing the return of net wealth for the period specified in the said section.

It is proposed to amend sub-sections (1) and (3) of the said section so as to reduce the rate of interest from two per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part of a month, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001

Clause 93 seeks to amend section 31 of the Wealth-tax Act which provides when tax, interest, penalty, fine or any other sum is payable by an assessee who is deemed to be in default.

Under the existing provision contained in section 31, if the amount specified in a notice of demand under section 30 is not paid within thirty days of the service of the notice, the assessee is liable to pay simple interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. for every month or part of a month for the period specified in that section.

It is proposed to amend sub-section (2) of the said section so as to reduce the rate of interest payable by the assessee from one and one-half per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part of a month, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Clause 94 seeks to amend section 34A of the Wealth-tax Act relating to refunds.

Under the existing provision contained in sub-section (3) of the said section, where a refund is due to the assessee in pursuance of an order referred to in sub-section (1) and the Assessing Officer does not grant the refund within a period of six months from the date of such order, the Central Government shall pay to the assessee simple interest at fifteen per cent. per annum on the amount of refund due for the period specified in the said sub-section.

Sub-clause (a) seeks to amend the said sub-section (3) so as to reduce the rate of interest from fifteen per cent. per annum to nine per cent. per annum.

Under the existing provision contained in clause (a) of sub-section (4B) of the said section, where refund of any amount becomes due to the assessee under the said Act, he shall be entitled to receive, in addition to the said amount, simple interest thereon calculated at the rate of one per cent. for every month or part of a month for the period specified in the said clause.

Sub-clause (b) seeks to amend the said clause (a) of sub-section (4B) so as to reduce the rate of interest from one per cent. to three-fourth per cent. for every month or part thereof, as the case may be.

These amendments will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Expenditure-tax

Clause 95 seeks to amend section 14 of the Expenditure-tax Act relating to interest on delayed payment of expenditure-tax.

Under the existing provision, every person responsible for collecting expenditure-tax and paying it to the credit of the Central Government, who fails to credit the tax to the account of the Central Government within the period specified in section 7 shall pay simple interest at the rate of one and one-half per cent. for every month or part of a month by which such crediting of tax is delayed.

The proposed amendment seeks to reduce the rate of interest from one and one-half per cent. to one and one-fourth per cent. for every month or part of a month, as the case may be.

This amendment will take effect from 1st June, 2001.

Customs

Clause 96 seeks to amend section 27A of the Customs Act so as to reduce the minimum rate of interest from ten per cent. to five per cent. on delayed refund of Customs duty.

Clause 97 seeks to amend section 28 of the Customs Act so as to provide for—

- (i) time-limit of one year within which the proper officer shall determine the duty or interest liability in cases of suppression of facts, etc., where it is possible;
- (ii) time-limit of six months within which the proper officer shall determine the duty or interest liability in all other cases, where it is possible; and
- (iii) voluntary payment of duty by an assessee, without having to wait for service of a show cause notice.

Clause 98 seeks to amend section 28AA of the Customs Act so as to make it inapplicable in respect of cases where duty or interest becomes payable or ought to be paid on and after the date of enactment of the Finance Act, 2001.

Clause 99 seeks to amend section 28AB of the Customs Act so as to provide that in respect of cases of short-levy where the duty becomes payable after the enactment of Finance Act, 2001, the interest on delayed payment shall be payable from the first day of the month succeeding the month in which the duty ought to have been paid.

Clause 100 seeks to amend section 61 of the Customs Act, so as to reduce the interest-free period in respect of warehoused goods from six months to 30 days. This clause shall come into effect from a date to be notified in the Official Gazette.

Clause 101 seeks to amend section 112 of the Customs Act so as to rationalise the penal provision in respect of improperly imported goods.

Clause 102 seeks to amend section 114 of the Customs Act, so as to rationalise the penal provision in respect of goods attempted to be exported improperly.

Clause 103 seeks to amend section 128 of the Customs Act so as to reduce the time limit for filing an appeal before Commissioner (Appeals) to 60 days, with provision for extension up to 30 days, on sufficient cause being shown;

Clause 104 seeks to amend section 128A of the Customs Act so as to,—

- (i) provide that where it is possible, the Commissioner (Appeals) shall decide every appeal within a period of six months of it being filed;
- (ii) withdraw the powers of the Commissioner (Appeals) to remand matters to the adjudicating authority for fresh consideration.

Clause 105 seeks to amend section 129D of the Customs Act so as to provide that direction by the Board for filing an appeal before the Customs Excise and Gold (Control) Appellate Tribunal may be given either to the adjudicating Commissioner or to any other Commissioner.

Clause 106 seeks to amend section 129E of the Customs Act so as to provide that the Commissioner (Appeals) may take decision on an application for waiver of pre-deposit of duty and interest or penalty within 30 days of it being filed, wherever it is possible.

Clause 107 seeks to insert a new section 159A of the Customs Act so as to make provisions in the said Act to save any action taken or anything done or omitted to be done, whenever any rule, regulation, notification or order made or issued under the Customs Act or any notification or order issued under such rule or regulation, is amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded.

The provisions of the new section shall have retrospective effect from the date of commencement of the said Act. This has become necessary in order to remove legal lacunae in the rules orders, notifications etc. issued under the said Act that arose due to certain judicial pronouncements.

Clause 108 proposes to validate certain action taken under the various rules, notifications, orders, etc. under the Customs Act. This has become necessary in order to validate certain action affected by certain judicial pronouncements.

Clause 109 seeks to amend certain notifications issued under section 25 (1) of the Customs Act in the manner specified in the Eighth Schedule with retrospective effect.

Clause 110 seeks to amend section 3 of the Customs Tariff Act to—

- (i) empower the Central Government to fix rates of additional duty on alcoholic liquors for human consumption chargeable to different rates of excise duty in the States and in case the like alcoholic liquor is not produced in any State, then, having regard to the excise duty leviable on the class or description of alcoholic liquor to which the imported alcoholic liquor belongs;
- (ii) provide for levy of additional duty on imported article on the basis of retail sale price, if like goods or similar goods produced or manufactured in India are subject to Central excise duty on this basis.

These shall come into effect immediately.

Clause 111 seeks to amend section 8B of the Customs Tariff Act—

- (i) to make provisions for levy of concessional safeguard duty within Tariff Rate Quota to be fixed by the Central Government;
- (ii) to provide that the levy of safeguard duty shall not be applicable to imports made by 100% export oriented undertakings, units in free trade zones and Special economic zones, unless specifically provided in the notification.

Clause 112 seeks to amend section 9A of the Customs Tariff Act to provide that the levy of anti-dumping duty shall not be applicable to imports made by 100% export oriented undertakings, units in free trade zones and Special economic zones, unless specifically provided in the notification.

Clause 113 seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act.

Sub clause (a) read with the Second Schedule seeks to—reduce the customs duty in respect of articles falling under the following Chapters, heading and sub-heading Nos., namely:-

Chapters 50 (heading No. 50.03), 51 (heading Nos. 51.11 and 51.12), 52 (heading No. 52.02 and sub-heading Nos. 5209.42 and 5209.59), 58 (sub-heading No. 5801.35), 61 (heading Nos. 61.05 and 61.09 and sub-heading Nos. 6104.19, 6104.62, 6104.63, 6106.10, 6107.11, 6108.21, 6108.22, 6108.91, 6108.92, 6110.20, 6110.30, 6110.90), 62 (sub-heading Nos. 6201.13, 6201.92, 6201.93, 6202.12, 6202.92, 6203.32, 6203.33, 6203.39, 6203.42, 6203.43, 6203.49, 6204.11, 6204.13, 6204.19, 6204.31, 6204.32, 6204.33, 6204.39, 6204.42, 6204.62, 6204.69, 6205.20, 6205.30, 6205.90, 6206.30, 6206.40, 6207.11, 6207.19, 6207.99, 6208.11, 6208.19, 6208.91, 6208.92, 6210.40, 6210.50 and 6214.10), 63 (sub-heading No. 6301.20), 70 (sub-heading Nos. 7019.19 and 7019.51), 84 (heading No. 84.70 and sub-

Sub-clause (b), read with the Third Schedule seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975 so as to incorporate some amendments approved by the Customs Cooperation Council (World Customs Organisation) in the legal text of the Harmonised Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonised System) in order that the First Schedule is in line with the Harmonised System.

Excise

Clause 114 seeks to amend section 3 of the Central Excise Act so as to make its provisions applicable to special economic zones as defined therein.

Clause 115 seeks to omit section 3A of the Central Excise Act.

Clause 116 seeks to amend section 5A of the Central Excise Act to make its provision applicable to special economic zones.

Clause 117 seeks to amend section 11A of the Central Excise Act so as to provide for—

- (i) time-limit of one year within which the proper officer shall determine the duty liability in cases of suppression of facts, etc., where it is possible;
- (ii) time-limit of six months within which the proper officer shall determine the duty liability in all other cases, where it is possible; and
- (iii) voluntary payment of duty by an assessee, without having to wait for service of a show cause notice.

Clause 118 seeks to amend section 11AA of the Central Excise Act so as to make it inapplicable in respect of cases where the duty becomes payable or ought to be paid on or after the date of enactment of the Finance Act, 2001.

Clause 119 seeks to amend section 11AB of the Central Excise Act so as to provide that in respect of cases of short levy where the duty becomes payable after the enactment of Finance Act, 2001, the interest on delayed payment shall be payable from the first day of the month succeeding the month in which the duty ought to have been paid.

Clause 120 seeks to amend section 11BB of the Central Excise Act so as to reduce the minimum rate of interest from ten per cent. to five per cent. on delayed refund of excise duty.

Clause 121 seeks to amend section 35 of the Central Excise Act so as to reduce the time limit for filing an appeal before the Commissioner (Appeals) to 60 days, with provision for extension up to 30 days, on sufficient cause being shown.

Clause 122 seeks to amend section 35A of the Central Excise Act so as to, --

- (i) provide that where it is possible, the Commissioner (Appeals) shall decide every appeal within a period of six months of its being filed;
- (ii) withdraw the powers of the Commissioner (Appeals) to remand matters back to the adjudicating authority for fresh consideration.

Clause 123 seeks to amend section 35E of the Central Excise Act so as to provide that direction by the Board for filing an appeal before the Customs Excise and Gold (Control) Appellate Tribunal may be given either to the adjudicating Commissioner or to any other Commissioner.

Clause 124 seeks to amend section 35F of the Central Excise Act so as to provide that Commissioner (Appeals) may take decision on an application for waiver of pre-deposit of interest or penalty within 30 days of it being filed, wherever it is possible.

Clause 125 seeks to insert a new section 38A in the Central Excise Act so as to make provisions with retrospective effect to save any rule, notification or order made or issued under the Central Excise Act which were later on amended, repealed, superseded or rescinded. This has become necessary as in some judicial pronouncements it has been held that section 6 of the General Clauses Act is not applicable in respect of subordinate legislation.

Clause 126 proposes to validate certain action taken under the various rules, notifications, orders etc. under the Central Excise Act. This has become necessary in order to validate certain action affected by certain judicial pronouncements.

Clause 127 read with the Fourth and Fifth Schedule seeks to amend the First and Second Schedule of the Central Excise Tariff Act.

Sub clause (a) seeks to amend the said First Schedule so as to-- increase the excise duty in respect of goods falling under the following Chapters, heading and sub-heading Nos., namely:-

Chapters 27 (sub-heading No. 2711.21), 34 (sub-heading No. 3406.10), 48 (sub-heading No. 4819.12), 62 (heading Nos. 62.01 and 62.02), 64 (sub-heading No. 6401.12), 71 (sub-heading No. 7101.50), 85 (sub-heading No. 8539.10), 90 (sub-heading No. 9004.90) and 96 (heading No. 96.03) ;

- (iv) insert Chapter Note 4 to Chapter 52 so as to define word 'denim';

- (v) insert sub-heading No. 5207.10 and renumber existing sub-heading Nos. 5207.10, 5207.21, 5207.22, 5207.23 and 5207.29;
- (vi) insert sub-heading No. 5208.10 and renumber existing sub-heading Nos. 5208.10, 5208.21, 5208.22, 5208.23 and 5208.29;
- (vii) insert Chapter Notes 3 and 4 to Chapter 62 so as to define 'brand name' and to specify that certain processes amount to manufacture respectively;
- (viii) amend Chapter Note 3 to Chapter 87 so as to clarify the scope of body built on the chassis of heading No. 87.06;
- (ix) amend the tariff description of heading No. 87.07 so as to clarify that the body built on the chassis of heading No. 87.06 does not fall under this heading.

Sub clause (b) seeks to amend the Second Schedule so as to—reduce the excise duty in respect of goods falling under the following Chapters, heading and sub-heading Nos., namely:-

Chapters 21 (sub-heading Nos. 2106.00 and 2108.10), 22 (sub-heading Nos. 2201.20 and 2202.20), 24 (sub-heading Nos. 2401.90, 2404.41, 2404.49, 2404.50 and 2404.99), 87 (sub-heading Nos. 8703.90, 8704.90, 8706.39 and 8706.49);

increase the excise duty in respect of goods falling under the following Chapters, heading and sub-heading Nos., namely:-

Chapters 25 (sub-heading Nos. 2502.21, 2502.30, 2502.40, 2502.50 and 2502.90), 43 (sub-heading No. 4301.00), 89 (sub-heading Nos. 8903.00 and 8907.00), 93 (sub-heading Nos. 9302.00, 9303.00, 9304.00, 9305.00, 9306.00 and 9307.00); omit heading Nos. 57.02, 57.03, 59.04, 59.05, 59.07, 69.05, 69.06, 87.11 and 94.04.

Clause 128 seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Additional Duties of Excise (Goods of Special Importance) Act so as to—

(a) increase the duty on goods falling under sub-heading Nos. 2404.41, 2404.50, 2404.99, 5110.10, 5110.21, 5110.22, 5110.23, 5110.29, 5111.10, 5111.21, 5111.22, 5111.23 and 5111.29;

(b) insert sub-heading No. 5207.10 and renumber the existing sub-heading Nos. 5207.10, 5207.21, 5207.22, 5207.23 and 5207.29;

(c) insert sub-heading No. 2404.49 to impose the additional duty on Pan masala containing tobacco;

(d) insert sub-heading No. 5208.10 and renumber the existing sub-heading Nos. 5208.10, 5208.21, 5208.22, 5208.23 and 5208.29.

Clause 129 seeks to levy National Calamity Contingent duty for purposes of the Union as a surcharge of excise duty on goods specified in the Seventh Schedule at the rates specified therein.

Service tax

Clause 130 seeks to amend Chapter V of the Finance Act, 1994 relating to service-tax.

Sub-clauses (a), (b) and (c) substitute sections 65, 66 and 67 so as to levy a tax on services rendered by—

- (i) a scientist or a technocrat or any science or technology institution or organisation, in relation to scientific or technical consultancy;
- (ii) a photography studio or agency in relation to photography, in any manner;
- (iii) any commercial concern in relation to holding of convention, in any manner;
- (iv) the telegraph authority, in relation to a communication through facsimile, telegraph, telex or leased circuit;

- (v) a commercial concern, in relation to on-line information and database access or retrieval or both in electronic form through computer network, in any manner;
- (vi) a video production agency in relation to video-tape production, in any manner;
- (vii) a sound recording studio or agency in relation to any kind of sound recording;

Sub-clause (k) seeks to amend section 77 of the said Act so as to revise the penalty to a sum which may extend to one thousand rupees for failure to furnish prescribed return.

Sub-clauses (l) and (m) seek to amend sections 78 and 79 of the said Act so as to empower Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or, as the case may be, Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise to direct any person to pay a penalty for suppressing value of taxable service and for failure to comply with the provisions of section 71, respectively.

Sub-clause (n) seeks to amend section 82 of the said Act so as to authorise Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or, as the case may be, Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise to search premises.

Sub-clause (o) seeks to amend section 84 of the said Act so as to provide, the Commissioner of Central Excise shall communicate the order passed by him under that sub-section to the assessee, Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise, or Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise and the Board.

Sub-clauses (p) and (q) seek to amend sections 85 and 86 of the said Act so as to empower the Commissioner of Central Excise or, Assistant Commissioner of Central Excise or Deputy Commissioner of Central Excise, as the case may be, to appeal to the Commissioner of Central Excise (Appeals) or the Appellate Tribunal, respectively.

Miscellaneous

Clause 131 seeks to substitute the First Schedule to the Indian Post Office Act, 1898 so as to provide for the revised rates for letters, post cards, printed post cards, competition post cards, registered newspapers, book, pattern and sample packets, registered newspapers and parcels.

These revised rates will be effective from a date to be notified in the Official Gazette after the Bill is passed and receives the assent of the President.

Clause 132 seeks to amend section 14 of the Central Sales Tax Act, so as to include Aviation Turbine Fuel sold to a Turbo-Prop Aircraft and sponge iron for the purpose of declaring it the goods of special importance in inter-State trade or commerce.

Clause 133 seeks to omit section 55 of the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development Act, 1981.

Section 55 of the said Act provides that notwithstanding anything contained in the Income-tax Act, 1961, or the Companies (Profits) Surtax Act, 1964, or any other enactment for the time being in force relating to tax on income, profits or gains, the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development shall not be liable to pay income-tax, surtax or any other tax in respect of any income, profits or gains derived or any amount received by it.

It is proposed to omit the said section to make the National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development liable to pay income-tax or any other tax in respect of the income, profits or gains derived, or any amount received by it.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 134 seeks to omit section 48 of the National Housing Bank Act, 1987.

Section 48 of the said Act provides that notwithstanding anything contained in the Income-tax Act, 1961, or any other enactment for the time being in force relating to tax on income, profits or gains, the National Housing Bank shall not be liable to pay income-tax or any other tax in respect of its income, profits or gains derived.

It is proposed to omit the said section to make the National Housing Bank liable to pay income-tax or any other tax in respect of the income, profits or gains derived by it.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

Clause 135 seeks to omit section 50 of the Small Industries Development Bank of India Act, 1989.

Section 50 of the said Act provides that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Income-tax Act, 1961 or in any other enactment for the time being in force relating to income-tax or any other tax on income, profits or gains, the Small Industries Development Bank of India shall not be liable to pay income-tax or any other tax in respect of (a) any income, profits or gains accruing or arising to the Small Industries Development Assistance Fund or any amount received in that Fund; and (b) any income, profits or gains derived or any amount received by it.

It is proposed to omit the said section to make the Small Industries Development Bank of India liable to pay income-tax or any other tax in respect of any income, profits or gains accruing or arising to the Small Industries Development Assistance Fund or on any amount received in that Fund and any income, profits or gains derived or any amount received by it.

This amendment will take effect from 1st April, 2002 and will, accordingly, apply in relation to the assessment year 2002-2003 and subsequent years.

MEMORANDUM REGARDING DELEGATED LEGISLATION

Clause 13 of the Bill seeks to insert a new sub-clause (viii) in clause (2) of section 17 of the Income-tax Act relating to definitions of "Salary", "perquisite" and "profits in lieu of salary". The amendment proposed by this clause confers power upon the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe, by rules, the value of any other fringe benefit or amenity to be included in "Salary".

Clause 14 of the Bill seeks to substitute section 23 of the Income-tax Act relating to determination of annual value of house property. The Explanation to sub-section (1) of the proposed new section empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe, by rules, the conditions in which the amount of rent which the owner cannot realise shall not be included in the actual rent received or receivable.

Clause 23 of the Bill seeks to amend section 35 of the Income-tax Act relating to expenditure on scientific research. Sub-clause (a), which seeks to amend sub-section (2AA) of the said section, empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to specify, by rules, the authority which will approve the specified person and the scientific research programme.

Clause 44 of the Bill seeks to substitute section 92 in the Income-tax Act relating to income from transactions with non-residents, how computed in certain cases.

Clause (m) of sub-section (2) of the proposed new section 92A empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to specify any relationship of mutual interest between two enterprises, the existence of which shall deem the enterprises to be associated enterprises.

Sub-section (1) of the proposed new section 92C empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the factors having regard to which any of the methods specified in the sub-section shall be taken to be the most appropriate method for determination of the arm's length price in relation to an international transaction. Clause (f) of the said section also empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe any other method for determination of the said arm's length price.

Sub-section (2) of the proposed new section 92C empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the manner in which the most appropriate method is to be applied for determination of the arm's length price in relation to an international transaction.

Sub-section (1) of the proposed new section 92D empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the information and documents which a person, who has entered into an international transaction, is required to keep and maintain. Sub-section (2) empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the period for which the information and documents referred to in sub-section (1) shall be kept and maintained.

The proposed new section 92E empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe, by rules, the form and the manner of verification of, and the particulars to be set forth in, the report to be furnished by a person who has entered into an international transaction during a previous year.

Clause 47 of the Bill seeks to substitute section 115AC of the Income-tax Act relating to tax on income from bonds or shares purchased in foreign currency or capital gains arising from their transfer.

Clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (1) of the proposed new section empower the Central Government to specify by notification in the Official Gazette, a scheme for issue of bonds and Global Depository Receipts by an Indian Company for purchase by non-residents in foreign currency.

The proposed new section also empowers the Central Government to specify by notification in the Official Gazette, the scheme under which "intermediary" may be approved.

Clause 48 of the Bill seeks to amend section 115ACA of the Income-tax Act relating to tax on income from Global Depository Receipts purchased in foreign currency or capital gains arising from their transfer.

The amendment proposed by clause (a) of sub-section (1) empowers the Central Government to specify, by notification in the Official Gazette, the Employees' Stock Option Scheme whereby an Indian company engaged in specified knowledge-based industry or service may issue Global Depository Receipts to a resident employee. The amendment proposed by the Explanation to sub-section (1) empowers the Central Government to specify, by notification in the Official Gazette, any other industry or service as specified knowledge based industry or service.

Clause 54 of the Bill seeks to amend section 139 of the Income-tax Act relating to return of income.

The proposed new sub-section (1) empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe, by rules, the form and manner of verification of, and the particulars to be set forth in, the return to be furnished by every person. The proposed proviso to the said sub-section empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to specify, by notification in the Official Gazette, the area in which the person, being a person other than a company, who is not required to furnish a return under this sub-section, resides and who on fulfilling at any time during the previous year any one of the six conditions specified in the said section, shall furnish a return of his income during the previous year on or before the due date in the form and manner prescribed as aforesaid.

The proposed second proviso of the proposed new sub-section (1) empowers the Central Government, to specify, by notification in the Official Gazette, the class or classes of persons to whom the provisions of the first proviso shall not apply.

Explanation .3 to the said sub-section empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to specify, by notification in the Official Gazette, the neighbouring countries or such places of pilgrimage which are not included in "travel to any foreign country".

Clause 55 of the Bill seeks to amend section 139A of the Income-tax Act relating to permanent account number.

The first proviso to the proposed new sub-section (5B) empowers the Central Government, to specify, by notification in the Official Gazette, different dates from which the provisions of the said sub-section shall apply in respect of any class or classes of persons.

Clause 63 of the Bill seeks to amend section 192 of the Income-tax Act relating to "Salary".

The proposed new sub-section (2C) empowers the Central Board of Direct Taxes to prescribe the form and manner of furnishing a statement giving correct and complete particulars of perquisites or profits in lieu of salary and the value thereof which a person, responsible for paying any income-tax chargeable under the head "Salaries", shall furnish to the person to whom such payment is made.

Clause 99(a) of the Bill seeks to amend section 28AB of the Customs Act, 1962. The amendment proposed by this clause confers powers upon the Central Government to fix rate of interest at such rate not below eighteen per cent and not exceeding thirty six per cent, per annum on delayed refunds, by notification in the Official Gazette.

Clause 110(a) of the Bill seeks to amend section 3 of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975. The amendment proposed by this clause confers powers upon the Central Government to specify the rate of additional duty on imported alcoholic liquor having regard to the excise duty for the time being leviable on the like alcoholic liquor produced or manufactured in different States, and in case the like alcoholic liquor is not produced or manufactured in any State, then, having regard of the excise duty leviable on the class or description of alcoholic liquor to which the imported alcoholic liquor belongs, by notification in the Official Gazette.

Clause 111(a) of the Bill seeks to amend section 8B of the Customs Tariff Act, 1975. The amendment proposed by this clause confers powers upon the Central Government to exempt the quantity of any article, when imported from any country or territory into India, by notification in the Official Gazette.

Clause 113(b) of the Bill seeks to amend the First Schedule to the Customs Tariff Act, 1975. This clause also confers powers upon the Central Government to appoint the date to bring into force the said amendment by notification in the Official Gazette.

Clause 119(a) of the Bill seeks to amend section 11 AB of the Central Excise Act, 1944. The amendment proposed by this clause confers powers upon the Central Government to fix rate of interest at such rate not below eighteen per cent, and not exceeding thirty-six per cent. per annum on delayed refunds, by notification in the Official Gazette.

Clause 130 of Bill seeks to amend the Finance Act, 1994. Sub-clause (a) of the said clause proposes to substitute section 66 of the said Act. Sub-sections (1), (2), (3), (4) and (5) of the proposed new section 66 empower the Central Government to make rules to provide the manner of collection of service-tax levied under those sub-sections. Sub-clause (e) of the said clause proposes to substitute new sections 70 and 71 of the Finance Act, 1994. The proposed section 70 empowers the Central Government to make rules to provide form and manner in which and the frequency at which a return shall be furnished under that section.

Clause 131 seeks to substitute the First Schedule to the Indian Post Office Act, 1898.

The proposed amendment empowers the Central Government to revise the rates for letters, post cards, printed post cards, competition post cards, book, pattern and sample packets, registered newspapers and parcels from a date to be notified in the Official Gazette after the Bill is passed and receives the assent of the President.

The matters in respect of which notifications may be issued or rules may be made in accordance with the aforesaid provisions of the Bill are matters of procedure and detail and it is not practicable to provide for them in the Bill itself.

The delegation of legislative power is, therefore, of a normal character.

G. C. MALHOTRA,
Secretary-General.
